FURY OF "WET" AND "DRY" WAR GROWS DAILY

Oasis Ahead May Be Only Mirage.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., March 4.—[Special.]—Daily, almost hourly developments are increasing the fury of the battle in the great American desert in which the "wets," with parching throats, are encouraged by visions of an oasis on the horizon, an oasis that the "drys" are confident is only a mirage.

The Day's Fusillade.

Here are the outstanding features in this day's record of the struggle:

The state of New Jersey attacked the prohibition amendment as unconstitutional in a complaint filed in the Supreme court.

The Supreme court announced it would on next Monday hear the pleas of Rhode Island and other complainants to declare the amendment null.

The house of representatives, by a vote of 86 to 254, refused to repeal the Volstead prohibition enforcement act or to eliminate an appropriation of $4,500,000 for its administration.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper stated the costs of enforcement of the law are being largely offset by fines paid to the government and that, according to his reports, the dry régime has decreased crime and increased production.

Roger Sees the Handwriting.

From political quarters emanated an authentic report that Roger Sullivan, when in the capital a few days ago, had dropped a stick of dynamite into that aggregation of Jeffersonians which is entertaining visions of victory in the presidential election on a "wet" platform. Mr. Sullivan, it appears, did not mince words in assuring sundry Democratic leaders that they are only making trouble for themselves and their party in attempting to force the liquor issue to the fore.

Mr. Sullivan is quoted as asserting that the country is overwhelmingly "dry," that only a few big cities are "wet," that a party indorsing even light wines and beer would be defeated, and that neither national convention will dare write a "wet" plank into its platform.

Will Dodge "Wet" Issue.

The Illinois Democratic leader declared that both conventions would shoot the liquor issue into the background and predicted Gov. Edwards of New Jersey would be snowed under in Illinois in his fight for delegates on an anti-prohibition platform.

Mr. Sullivan fairly stunned the "wet" element with his view of the situation. Some of the "wet" Jeffersonians took issue with Mr. Sullivan, asserting that while the country was overwhelmingly dry" while liquor was still available, there has been a marked reaction against the "bone dry" brand of prohibition.

The Sullivan view was echoed, however, by some anti-Bryan Democrats, who expressed the fear that the "wets" are furnishing the Nebraskan with an issue on which he could raise a campaign in the convention over selection of chairman and other organization features as he did at Baltimore on the Wall street issue.

Avalanche of "Dry" Votes.

The fight in the house today was precipitated by Representative Eagan, Democrat, of New Jersey in an attempt to attach a rider to the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation repealing the Volstead prohibition enforcement law and eliminating the appropriation therefor. The move of the "wets" loosed the biggest avalanche of "dry" votes in the history of the liquor struggle in congress.

Members of the Illinois delegation voting with the wets were Britten, Hull, Madden, and Rodenberg, Republicans; Gallagher and J. W. Rainey, Democrats.

Those voting with the "drys" included Yates, Mann, Wilson, Chindblom, Fuller, McKenzie, Graham, King, Sterling, Cannon, McKinley., H. T. Rainey, Wheeler, Brooks, Williams and Dunn, Illinois.

Report from Roper.

Commissioner Roper said his reports indicate "prohibition is working out satisfactorily" in many communities.

"Workmen are reporting for work more promptly and are losing less time," Mr. Roper said. "In some local-

BRITISH JURORS FREE SLAYER OF GERMAN SAILOR

Shot War Prisoner in Cold Blood.

EDINBURGH, March 4.—While the victorious powers were denouncing and drafting a list of Germans accused of war crimes and demanding that they be prosecuted before an allied court, a British sailor was on trial in a Scottish court for shooting down a German prisoner in cold blood on board the British warship Resolution.

The indictment stated that on June 23, 1919, at midnight James Woolley, sailor on the Resolution, then at Scapa Flow, Orkney, murdered Kuno Eversberg of the interned German cruiser Frankfurt with a rifle. The trial was before Lord Anderson and a jury.

Slayer Deserts Navy.

Capt. A. H. Allison said Woolley deserted after the shooting and was apprehended on Sept. 18 at Leyland. He said the day after Eversberg was shot he told the German officers that the murder was not a British action, that he regretted it very much, and that he would take every step to bring the culprit to justice.

Gunner J. H. Russell said he and another sentry were escorting Eversberg and another prisoner when Eversberg was shot in the back, the bullet passing through his stomach and lodging in the deck.

John Copeland, an able seaman, said that about 10 o'clock that night Woolley told him he was going to shoot a German prisoner and asked where the rifles were stored. Woolley was drunk. Some time later he met Woolley on deck with a rifle. Woolley left for a while and the witness took the cartridge out of the rifle. For this Woolley threatened to hit him.

Says He Planned Crime.

Able Seaman William Percy Berry said that between 10 and 10:30 he saw Woolley carrying a rifle. Woolley said he had lost two brothers in the war, and he was "going to have his own back at the Germans." Berry first was accused of the crime, but later revealed the name of the slayer only after much pressure. Asked why he did not report the presence of a man with a rifle on the boat deck, Berry replied that he had no love for the Germans whatever.

The record indicates Woolley made no attempt to defend his act.

Lord Anderson in his charge to the jury said Great Britain and the allies must have clean hands in demanding war criminals from Germany. The trial might attract world-wide notice.

The jury returned a unanimous verdict of "not proved," and Woolley was released. The verdict was received with applause in court. Father and son embraced, and Woolley received hearty congratulations from his naval friends.

Father Nurses Sick Son, Runs Business by Phone

Since last Monday William Gourley, president of the Lake Forest Lumber company, has been performing the duties of a nurse at the Lake Forest contagious hospital and employing his spare moments in directing his business affairs by telephone.

His patient is his 8 year old son, Arthur, who is ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. Gourley's wife died recently and he and his son have been residing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gourley of Highland Park. When the boy became ill, Mr. Gourley was unable to obtain a nurse.

In the emergency he had his son moved to the hospital and went there himself to nurse him, prepare his meals and do all the other duties of a trained nurse. He will surrender his job to a regular nurse today.

WIPE OUT ARMY OF DENIKINE; MENACE BRITISH

Gen. Brussiloff Now Soviet Leader.

LONDON, March 4.—Complete elimination of the forces of Gen. Denikine in south Russia has been brought about, according to expert interpretation of the war office advices of the past week's operations. With the Reds in possession of portions of the Trikhoretskaya-Petrovsk railway, Gen. Denikine's only lateral means of communication by which it would be possible to ship troops to the weakened points of his line is paralyzed and contact with the Caspian fleet is imperiled.

The Red cavalry and armored trains are concentrating on the railway center of Ekaterinodar, making worse this feature of the situation. The entire collapse of Denikine's resistance is considered a matter of a short time.

Peril to British Lands.

This, according to the war office report, revives the fears of a menace to the British mid-Asian interests.

Additional cause for alarm, says the report, is that the bolsheviki may undertake aggressive steps in Persia. This alarm arises from the reports of the new Red administration established at Mery, Trans-Caspia, under Gen. Kuropatkin. This administration is uncomfortably near the troublesome elements in Afghanistan.

Another former czarist commander who is reported to have appeared at the head of a Red force is Gen. Brussiloff, former commander in chief of the Russian armies. He is said to be at Skobeleff operating against the Ferghana insurgents. At the outbreak of the world war Brussiloff commanded the Russians in their attacks on Galicia.

Kuban Revolt Against Denikine.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, undersecretary for home affairs, said in the house of commons today that, according to the latest British information, the province of Kuban in northern Caucasia was revolting against Gen. Denikine.

A large detachment of the Russian volunteer army under Gen. Pradow has reached the Polish lines near Kamenetz-Podolsk, says a London Times dispatch from Warsaw. These forces are the remains of Gen. Denikine's corps from west of the Dnieper, which have been without a base since the bolshvik occupation of Odessa.

The detachment numbers 6,000 men, mostly of the cavalry, and is accompanied by as many women and children. Almost three-quarters of the company is reported suffering from typhus.

A bolshevik communication received by wireless from Moscow reports the capture by soviet forces of the port of Kem, 180 miles northwest of Archangel. Kem is on the White sea, at the mouth of the Kem river.

Jury Expresses Sympathy with Man Police Killed

DUBLIN, March 4.—The coffined body of a man found in a bog in County Clare was identified at the inquest today to be that of Martin Devitt, killed in an unsuccessful attack on a police patrol a few days ago. The verdict of the jury was: "We find Martin Devitt died Feb. 24 from a bullet wound received while fighting for the freedom of his country, which freedom is prevented by misgovernment, and we offer our sympathy to the relatives."

Daughter of Fairbanks Is Granted a Divorce

Indianapolis, Ind., March 4.—Mrs. Adelaide Fairbanks Timmons, daughter of the late Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, today was granted a divorce in Superior court from Capt. John W. Timmons, United States naval officer. Mrs. Timmons is plaintiff in a suit which seeks to have set aside her father's will in order that she may secure a "child's share" of his $8,000,000 estate.

American Railway League Seeks Aishton as Chief

Richard H. Aishton, former regional director of railroads under government control, who was dropped from the Chicago and Northwestern in the reorganization which came with the roads return to private ownership, has been offered the presidency of the American Railway association, it became known yesterday. He has neither accepted nor refused.

CONGRESS HITS AT PALMER FOR PRICE OF SUGAR

Impeachment Hint in Plan for Inquiry.

Washington, D. C., March 4.—[Special.]—By a strictly partisan vote, 162 to 142, the house today adopted a resolution offered by Representative Tinkham of Massachusetts, authorizing the judiciary committee to investigate Attorney General Palmer's conduct in concurring in the proposal submitted by the United States district attorney of New Orleans, which permitted the Louisiana sugar planters to fix a price of 17 and 18 cents for last year's sugar crop.

The resolution not only calls for an investigation into the facts surrounding this transaction, but empowers the committee to inquire whether the department of justice gave the sugar growers immunity from prosecution against profiteering and demands under what authority of law the department of justice agreed upon the sugar prices that could be charged, which, Mr. Tinkham avers, caused retail sugar prices to soar 9 and 10 cents a pound.

Impeachment Charges Suggested.

During the debate the desire of the Republican leaders to lodge impeachment charges against the attorney general if possible through the proposed inquiry was suggested. Representative Philip H. Campbell of Kansas, who reported the rule for the inquiry, in explaining the purposes of the investigation, hinted at such a move.

"The only action that can be taken at this time, if the rule is adopted," Mr. Campbell said, "is to call the attorney general before the judiciary committee and let him explain his action in the sugar case. Then let the judiciary committee make such report to congress as the circumstances require and justify."

In explanation of his speech, Mr. Campbell said subsequently that he had in mind the impeachment of the attorney general for "unlawful acts."

Rep. Garrett of Tennessee, who made the chief speech for the opposition, charged the Republicans with cowardice and challenged them to take the "open, brave course and rise on the floor and impeach the attorney general."

Public Is "King" of U. S.

Attorney General Palmer, in a political speech here tonight, the first since his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination was openly avowed, sought to restore with labor any friendly relations that may have been disturbed by his injunction suit in the coal strike.

The attorney general, speaking before the National Press club, made the relations of capital and labor his principal theme.

"There need be no restriction of the rights of men to strike," he said, "and no compulsory arbitration of differences if provision is made for the American public to be advised of all facts in relation to every dispute so large as to affect in its consequences a considerable portion of the public. Public opinion is the only monarch.

Should Never Reach Strike Stage.

"All the government sought to do in the coal strike was to insist that both sides should be heard before an impartial tribunal so that the country would not be made to suffer. While the government may properly exercise its right to protect the vast body of the American people from a general tieup in the production or transportation of the necessaries of life, it ought never to be necessary to exercise that right.

"It is a shame that labor was ever forced to the necessity of taking the strong stand it has been compelled to take for its own advancement. Now that both capital and labor recognize each other's power, the thing to do in the public interest is to build the machinery which will make it possible for both sides to have their claims presented to the public."

Big Pay for Grain Men.

Replying to a letter from Senator Hitchcock, the Democratic leader of the senate, Julius H. Barnes, head of the United States Grain corporation, admitted today that there are fifteen men on the corporation pay roll at present drawing salaries of $25,000 a year each.

The high salaried men, Mr. Barnes explained, served without any remuneration whatever during the war and until July 1 last. When President Wilson asked to continue the service administering the war pledge guarantee, Mr. Barnes said that it was necessary to give the men salaries in order to retain them and their remuneration began July 1, 1919.

34 MUTINEERS OF SHIPPING BOARD VESSEL IN IRONS

Norfolk, Va., March 4.—The shipping board steamship Poughkeepsie, with thirty-four members of the crew in irons, guarded by bluejackets from destroyers, arrived today at Hampton roads. Department of justice agents brought the prisoners to Norfolk tonight for arraignment before the United States commissioner.

Cable dispatches from Hamilton, Bermuda, said members of the crew of the steamer had mutinied Feb. 5 when their articles expired and the United States consul general sustained the contention of the captain that they must work the ship to the port of discharge in the United States. The Poughkeepsie had been towed into Hamilton in distress Jan. 22.

A temporary crew was secured and seven days ago the Poughkeepsie sailed for this port. The delay in arrival was due to a broken propeller blade. A detachment of bluejackets remained on the steamer to guard the men under arrest.

United States Commissioner Stephenson remanded the men to jail pending a hearing.

WILSON GIVES JOHN F. JELKE FULL PARDON

Oleo Maker Escapes Prison Term.

John F. Jelke, oleo manufacturer, received an absolute pardon from President Wilson several days ago, according to the statement of Mrs. Jelke at their home, 1352 North La Salle street, last night. Mr. Jelke, who, his wife said, is "not very well," was asleep when a reporter called.

Mr. Jelke on May 5, 1914, was sentenced to two years in the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth and to pay a fine of $10,000, after he and eight associates had been convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government of taxes on artificially colored oleomargarine.

Seven Are Fined.

Seven of Jelke's associates who were found guilty escaped with fines. Francis M. Lowry, aged 70, secretary and general manager of the John F. Jelke company, was sentenced separately. He was to serve sixty days in jail and pay a fine of $2,500. But neither Lowry nor Jelke ever spent any time behind bars. Various reprieves and stays were obtained in the course of several years.

Sentence Commuted.

Jelke and Lowry paid their fines in March, 1919, and received a presidential reprieve until Dec. 4. On payment of the fine Mr. Jelke's prison sentence was commuted to sixty days. The last reprieve granted to Jelke came on Feb. 2, 1920.

New York, March 4.—[Special.]—The following entry was made today in the "Divorce Book" in the county clerk's office, in which the names of the principals in the divorce actions brought in New York county are recorded:

"Beatrice Hale vs. Swinburne Hale."

The only other entry was the name of the lawyer for the plaintiff, John M. Scoble, 55 Liberty street. Mr. Scoble tonight refused to disclose the identity of his client.

Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale is the wife of Swinburne Hale, a son of Prof. and Mrs. William Gardner Hale, late of the University of Chicago, but now living at Stamford, Conn.

EUROPE TO SHIP GOLD TO U. S. TO RESTORE CREDIT

New York, March 4.—[Special.]—Official announcement of the inauguration of one of the greatest gold import movements in the history of the United States will be made within forty-eight hours, it was learned today.

Present plans contemplate the shipment from Europe, principally from England and France, of no less than $250,000,000 spread over a number of months. The current shipments of gold to Argentina dwindle into insignificance in comparison with the determination of England and France to ship enough gold here to restore the credit of British and French securities outstanding in the United States and to create dollars in this market.

While positive information regarding the start of a huge gold import movement was not obtained until after the close of today's market, the foreign exchange market had the most abrupt upturn since the long avalanche of declines began. Sterling jumped from an opening price of $3.46¼ to $3.59, there being practically no transactions between $3.50 and $3.53 and none whatever between $3.54 and $3.58.

The largest part of the buying orders originated from British and French sources. Francs rose from 14.17 to the dollar to 13.82.

Woman and Auto Driver Gas Victims in Garage

Mrs. Herbert E. Simons of 607 Deming place, whose husband is sales manager for the Manhattan Soap company at 326 River street, was overcome by carbon monoxide gas yesterday afternoon in a garage at the rear of her home while watching Albert Westcott, the chauffeur, attempting to fix a carburetor. Wescott also was overcome.

Mrs. Simons managed to make her way to the yard and was found fainting near the back door of her home. She was revived by Dr. Lindsay A. Beaton of 2573 North Clark street. Westcott, found under the car, was revived with the aid of respiratory apparatus belonging to the fire department.

BOND INQUIRY FINDS STEVENS' SECURITY FAKE

Gunman's $25,000 Bail Worth $7,000.

The inquiry into the Chicago Criminal court bond situation ran yesterday into the case of Walter Stevens, one of the city's premier gunmen, who is at liberty on $25,000 bail. Stevens has been linked by State's Attorney Hoyne as a suspect in sixteen murders over a number of years, though never convicted of one.

Investigation in the assessor's office revealed yesterday that the property scheduled to assure Stevens' appearance to answer for complicity in the $250,000 Heller-Rose jewel robbery is worth exactly $7,050 and consists of two vacant lots at the southwest corner of Twenty-first and Dearborn streets.

Courts Soon to Call Him.

Stevens, a member of the local "Camorra," who enjoys the acquaintance of "Sonny" Dunn and knew the late Maurice ("Moss") Enright, will have a hearing on the Heller-Rose charge before Judge Hugo Pam in the Criminal court immediately the murder trial of Eugene Geary, another of the Camorrists, is concluded. That is, if Stevens puts in an appearance.

In Geneva, Ill., on Feb. 10, Stevens was brought to trial for attempting to kill Lester Wademaier, an Aurora policeman, but the hearing was postponed. He was last acquitted of a murder charge in July, 1919, when a Geneva jury found him not guilty of shooting Alfred Olin, also an Aurora police officer, to death.

Fugitive for Months.

For several months, after the Heller-Rose robbery in January, 1918, Stevens was a fugitive, but consented to give himself up to Mr. Hoyne if the latter would reduce his bonds from $125,000 to $25,000.

Andrew Craig, a former saloonkeeper, presented himself as his bondsman. Craig represented in his affidavit that the lots he was about to schedule on the surety were worth $50,000, and had been purchased from the heirs of the Peter F. Bisen estate in 1904 for $18,000.

Investigation yesterday revealed that the property is located in the heart of the old levee district, with a frontage of 66.15 feet on Twenty-first street and 46.9 feet on Dearborn street; that it cost Craig $12,000 and not $18,000, and that the decline to the present assessment of $7,050 is probably due to the fact that the levee is no longer in existence.

Prosecutor Not Disturbed.

Mr. Hoyne and Assistant State's Attorney John P. Moran expressed themselves as not greatly disturbed by the disclosures.

"Craig owns an apartment building in Sheridan road," said Mr. Moran, "which is worth at least $150,000, but which he couldn't schedule because it is held in escrow. If Stevens should skip, the state could collect whatever Craig receives from that property when the escrow is dissolved."

"But suppose he he should dispose of his funds so that the state could not reach them?"

"Well," declared Mr. Moran, "he can transfer his property out from under his bond whenever he wants to. There is no law against it."

It was suggested that Craig had somewhat exaggerated the evident value of his south side holdings.

"I suppose," Mr. Moran ventured, "he expects to sell it some day to a railroad. Probably he stated what he hopes he can get."

TO STOP BOND FRAUDS

While "Slippery Sonny" Dunn continued yesterday to secrete himself from the law, while at liberty on a "tissue paper" bond, Judge Anton T. Zeman in the Criminal court issued citations for contempt against two persons, accused of presenting worthless sureties for his indorsement.

The judge acted at the request of Attorney General Edward J. Brundage—a newcomer in the ranks of bogus bond crusaders, whose interest was awakened by Dunn's strange case, as THE TRIBUNE said several days ago, it had been.

Mr. Brundage directed the judge's attention to Mrs. Mittie Harris of 2304 Fulton street, a professional bondswoman, and to Henry Weil, a "runner," who obtains business for the bond clique.

In December, 1918, Dr. Oswald W.

Sprafka of 1733 Hermitage avenue, who was pulling teeth without a license, was arrested. The "doctor" jumped his bonds and was arrested a year later in Stevens Point, Wis., where he sawed the bars out of his cell window.

His wife persuaded him, however, to return to Chicago for trial, and on Jan. 13, 1920, Mrs. Harris, at Weil's solicitation, it is alleged, signed his bond for $2,500. She scheduled property at 2304-06 Fulton street, which she valued at $14,000.

Mr. Brundage declares Mrs. Harris does not own the property at 2306 Fulton street; that both premises are worth not more than $6,000, instead of $14,000, and that they are mortgaged for $1,300.

Business Is Brisk.

But Mrs. Harris has done a brisk trade. Since Nov. 29, 1918, she has signed $74,300 worth of bonds. There are forfeitures of $10,000 pending against her, and three bonds outstanding for $14,500 more.

Her name appears on the blacklist recently compiled by Chief Justice Crowe of the Criminal court and Assistant State's Attorney John P. Moran.

The judge and Mr. Moran were before the March grand jury to lay the foundation for the investigation of bond frauds.

Officials and hangers on around the Criminal court building expressed the belief that Mr. Dunn would show up "in the course of time." Nor did Mr. Hoyne appear to be fretted by "Slippery Sonny's" defiance.

"We regard Dunn," the prosecutor said, "as a cheap thief. He's important to the public because the newspapers have had a lot to say about him. But he's really not a good gunman as gunmen go."

VINCI COUP FAILS

James Vinci, the prosecution's chief witness as to the slaying of "Moss" Enright, slipped out of the hands of State's Attorney Hoyne and into them again during a tense half hour's hearing last night before Chief Justice Crowe in the Criminal court.

A coup had been planned by Vinci's alleged co-conspirators, it is charged. It was intended to place the chauffeur, who says he drove the automobile from which Enright was shot to death, in the county jail, where their attorneys could question him. The plan was defeated, however, when the state followed up a legal advantage with a quick display of force.

Ever since Vinci confessed three weeks ago, implicating "Big Tim" Murphy, Michael Carozzo, and Vincenzo Cosmano in the plot to kill Enright, he has been held incomunicado by the prosecutor at a downtown hotel.

Foil Arrest of Deputy.

The witness was produced in court at the request of the judge after Vinci's wife had announced she intended to obtain a writ of habeas corpus. The judge dismissed the writ, whereupon Deputy Sheriff Lester S. Ness attempted to arrest Vinci on a warrant charging him with complicity in the murder.

The deputy said he had received his orders to take Vinci to jail from Thomas T. Freeman, in charge of the north side branch of the sheriff's office.

While Mr. Hoyne sprinted for a telephone detectives and assistant prosecutors from his office blocked Ness' path. The deputy was unable to proceed and eventually his prisoner was taken away from him and conducted into a side room.

Sheriff Cancels Orders.

Meanwhile the state's attorney had reached Sheriff Charles W. Peters at the latter's home and Peters countermanded Freeman's orders. A cordon of the prosecutor's men then formed about Vinci and he was hustled out of the Criminal Courts building and back to his hotel.

Present in the courtroom when James J. Barbour, Mrs. Vinci's counsel, stepped forward to present her plea were Francis W. Walker, attorney for Murphy; Stephen A. Malato, Carozzo's counsel, and Clarence Darrow, representing Cosmano.

Mr. Hoyne was present in person, accompanied by his secretary, George T. Kenney, and by Assistant State's Attorneys Prystalski, Owen, and James C. O'Brien.

GEARY, ON STAND, COWERS AT GUN THAT SLEW FOE

Repudiates Statement on Tripple Murder.

Eugene Geary, on trial for his life in Judge Hugo Pam's court, made an unusual witness when he took the stand yesterday to defend himself against the charge that he murdered Leonard Tripple, taxi driver, last October.

EUGENE GEARY. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

The gunman boasted of his prowess as a fighter. He could recall none of the statements he had made to the state's attorney shortly after the shooting in the Cadillac bar. At last he denied he had made any statement.

Geary shrank from the revolver with which the chauffeur was slain.

"I don't know nothing about it," he declared, when Assistant State's Attorney John Prystalski extended the weapon toward him. "I was nutty."

Denies He's Gun Toter.

He told Mr. Prystalski he had never carried a revolver.

Q.—Didn't Lieut. Michael Hughes of the detective bureau arrest you for having a gun in your pocket. A.—I gave him the gun.

Q.—Answer the question. A.—Yes, I gave him the gun and he arrested me. It was during the race riots.

Q.—Do you remember the statement you made in the state's attorney's office? A. I never made a statement. I never signed nothing.

Q.—But you told of the shooting? A.—I don't remember; I was nutty.

Bares Tripple's Threat.

Q.—How many shots do you say were fired? A. Two.

Q.—Didn't you say in the state's attorney's office that three shots were fired? A. I was nutty.

Q.—At which shot did Tripple fall? A. The first. I was trying to take his gun away. It jerked up and the bullet hit the ceiling.

Q.—Didn't you make the statement that Tripple fell at the second shot; that you took his gun away and fired at his legs? A. I don't remember. I was nutty.

Geary testified that he had fought with Tripple the day before the shooting and that Tripple had threatened his life.

Ganey Tells His Story.

John Ganey, Geary's co-defendant, who the state contends assisted him in the murder by holding spectators at bay, said he heard two shots and ran.

Q.—Did you ask Geary what the shooting was about? A. No. It was none of my business.

TREATY EFFECT ON TURKEY

1—The Turkish peace treaty, which is now nearing completion, shears the Turk of all his European lands except Constantinople itself. Thrace, including the city of Adrianople, goes to Greece. The Moslems, however, will keep control of their shrines and holy places. The control of Smyrna is again confirmed to Greece. Greece has profited greatly by the downfall of her enemies. The Aegean sea is now practically a Grecian lake.

2—The Greeks report that the Turks have massacred a large number of Greeks and Armenians at Rodosto.

3—The British deny that they intend sending any more warships to Constantinople. Fifteen hundred French troops have sailed to the near east, and will land at Constantinople.

4—All Americans in Amtab are reported safe. Disorders there have quieted down, but much hatred exists between factions. There are no French troops there, and the neighborhood is said to be infested with bandits.

POLICE THROW BULL OUT OF PARIS, BLOW TO QUO VADIS THRILL

[By Special Cable.]

PARIS, March 4.—They must tie that bull outside—Paris.

A mammoth production of Quo Vadis, just produced in the Champs Elysees theater, nearly broke up last night because when the big scene came it was found there was no bull to tie the beautiful, scantily clad heroine on.

During rehearsals the bull lived in the theater, but the neighbors complained to the authorities because he bellowed nightly. So the police under a special ordinance—date Dec. 8, 1829,—which prohibits "calves, cows, bulls, pigs, chickens and rabbits" from being kept inside the city limits ordered the bull away outside the fortifications.

Hereafter the bull must be led to the theater for each performance and taken away and outside.

MARY PICKFORD ELUDES SEEKERS OF INTERVIEWS

Los Angeles, Cal., March 4.—[Special.]—Speeding in an automobile from San Francisco to San Jose, where she caught the train for Los Angeles just as it was leaving the station, Mary Pickford, who divorced Owen Moore Tuesday at Minden, Nev., today dodged interviewers all along the line.

Filmdom buzzed today with gossip of the divorce and awaited definite information regarding reports that she and Douglas Fairbanks intend to be married.

It was said today that the persistency of the report that Miss Pickford was to wed Fairbanks may induce her to issue a statement, either denying or confirming the rumor. A similar statement is also expected from Fairbanks.

Lottie Pickford, sister of Mary, said her mother and sister had not reached Los Angeles and that she believed they intended to go to Chicago.

"Why don't you wait until she gets back and ask her herself?" said Lottie in reply to inquiries whether she had heard of reports that Miss Pickford and Fairbanks are to be married.

SUFFRAGE FATE RESTS WITH FOUR G. O. P. STATES

Charleston, W. Va., March 4.—Ratification of the federal suffrage amendment by the senate in the West Virginia legislature is yet possible, according to leaders of that body favoring ratification, who announced tonight that Senator Jesse A. Bloch of Wheeling was hastening from California to throw his vote on the side of the proponents of suffrage.

Warns Republicans.

Washington, D. C., March 4.—[Special.]—The following statement was issued by the National Woman's party today:

"If the West Virginia legislature fails to ratify the suffrage amendment the Republican party will be responsible, since the majority of that legislature is Republican.

"If West Virginia defeats ratification three more states must be obtained. Washington has called a special session for March 22, which will give the thirty-fourth state. The last two must be secured from states in which both governors and legislatures are Republican—Delaware, Vermont, or Connecticut. So far the governors of these three states have refused to call special sessions. If they continue to refuse ratification may be delayed until too late for women to vote in the fall elections."

RED BOMB HITS U. S. CONSULATE; ENVOY UNHURT

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

ZURICH, March 4.—A big bomb was thrown yesterday morning against the main entrance of the building occupied by the American consul general. Public opinion suspects it was a bolshevik act of revenge. The main entrance was smashed to pieces.

POLICE BLAME ANARCHISTS.

Washington, D. C., March 4.—Consul General Keene at Zurich reported to the state department today that the police there blame "anarchistic activities" for the bomb exploded at the American consulate. Mr. Keene said the building was partly destroyed, but that no one was injured.

IRELAND GREETS HOME RULE BILL WITH BIG GROAN

All Parties Find Fault with Lloyd George Plan.

BY J. LESTER.
[By Special Cable.]
[Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.]

DUBLIN, Feb. 29.—Delayed.—Upon the evening of the home rule bill's introduction in commons Ireland generally was indifferent. The Sinn Fein's formidable grip on the country, increasing disillusionment even among moderate groups with the British government's repressive régime, and remembrance of former home rule measures, all combined to produce this lack of interest. Unionists and Republicans alike had ceased to revile home rule. Broadly speaking, that remains true today, but publication of the text of the new Lloyd George bill led to an outburst of anger and cynicism from all Irish parties, Sinn Fein, southern Unionist, and moderate Nationalists, Belfast orangemen excepted.

No Chance for Bill.

Arthur Griffith, acting president of Ireland, declares the bill never will come into operation and is not wanted by any party. In a statement made to American journalists in Dublin, Mr. Griffith added: "The bill is merely one to repeat in a measure the promise by which Redmond was duped into advising his countrymen to fight and die for England. Tell the American people Ireland never will permit itself to be made, according to present plans of English militarists, a pistol pointed at New York. England's present scheme to dismember Ireland will meet with a fate similar to England's former scheme with Aaron Burr to dismember the United States."

Anti-Home Rulers' Plaint.

All the extreme opponents of the Irish organization, comprising irreconcilable opponents to any form of self-government, repudiates the measure as one of confusion and friction.

Mr. Lloyd George had a very bad presentation of his aim in the Irish Freemans Journal, representing moderate nationalism. Fifteen lines leading the article on the bill declares it would be an insult to the Irish people to waste time discussing the "audacious fraud." "Away with it!"

"The Irish Times, mouthpiece of the southern Unionists, declares the government may pass but can never enforce the bill which, is nothing more nor less than a permanent partition of the country.

The Irish Independent, organ of the commercial interests, advocates colonial home rule.

U. S. FAVORS IRISH: PLUNKETT.
[By Special Cable.]

DUBLIN, March 4.—Sir Horace Plunkett, who has just returned from America, speaking tonight at the Dublin banquet of the Irish Dominion league, declared that, from 1911 on the Prussian government organized in America a German-Irish alliance with the view of preventing America from participating in the coming war and that only the splendid loyalty of the Irish-Americans to America defeated the plot.

"In America I found a more bitter anti-English feeling than in all of my forty years' observation," he said. "The Americans don't bother themselves with the details, but they want Ireland to have as large a measure of self-government as is consistent with the safety of the British empire, for, which they recognize that they are almost as much concerned as the British.

"In my judgment, America does not want Ireland an independent republic, but feels that until England keeps her promises the Irish are justified in asking anything they like."

Plunkett bitterly criticized the home rule bill as "a bill for a worse government of Ireland."

Pupils of School Closed by the Health Bureau Start for Home.

Two public schools were brought to the attention of Dr. John Dill Robertson yesterday as smoke violators. He ordered the fires extinguished immediately in the Walter Scott school at Blackstone avenue and Sixty-fourth street and the boilers were shut down at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Dr. Robertson directed that the school be closed until Monday, but John Howatt, chief engineer of the school board, appealed to him not to take this action, as the pipes in the building probably would freeze during the blizzard unless heat was maintained. The order was then countermanded.

School officials also promised the health commissioner that smoke evils at the John Marshall high school, 3231 West Monroe street, repeatedly complained of, would be corrected.

TURKS TO RETAIN ONLY RELICS OF ANCIENT POWER

Allies Permit Moslems to Keep 'Sacred' Places.

LONDON, March 4.—Turkey is stripped of virtually all her territory in Europe, but retains the sacred places, by the treaty now being completed by the conference of foreign ministers and ambassadors, it became known today.

Thrace has been awarded to Greece by the peace conference, but the present conference is charged with the task of working out plans whereby the Turks will keep control of the sacred places. Adrianople and Smyrna will be placed under Greek control.

15,000 Armenians Slain.

Replying to a question in the house of commons today regarding the massacres of Armenians, Premier Lloyd George said the allied conference and the conferees had reached a decision which had been communicated to their representatives at Constantinople. It would not be advisable, added the premier, to make public at the moment the character of that decision, adding that he was "fully alive to the gravity of the position and to the need of taking very strong measures to protect minorities."

Information from British sources in Constantinople indicates that the reports of massacres in the Marash region of Asiatic Turkey were not exaggerated as had been believed in official quarters in London.

According to these reports, between 15,000 and 20,000 Armenians either were slain or died of privations.

About America's Mandate.

Lloyd George was asked on what date America had definitely refused to accept a mandate for Constantinople and whether America had been consulted concerning the Turkish peace terms. The premier replied that the United States did not definitely refuse to accept the mandate but had withdrawn from the discussions. The peace terms with Turkey are still under discussion, he added, and the American government has declined an invitation to be present at the conference.

Turkish Cabinet Quits.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 3.—In view of the gravity of the situation the cabinet resigned today. The sultan has called upon Marshal Izzet Pasha to form a new cabinet.

Izzet Pasha is a partisan of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the leader of the Turkish nationalists. His designation as head of the new cabinet is regarded here as a distinct triumph for the nationalists over the sultan and the more conservative leaders.

SENATE WASHES HANDS OF U. S. IN SHANTUNG STEAL

Votes 69-2 to Withhold Assent to Articles.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 4.—[Special.]—The first modification of the Lodge peace treaty reservations was adopted today when the senate, by a vote of 69 to 2, accepted the change of the bi-partisan conference in the reservation affecting the Shantung agreement.

As amended, the reservation eliminates all mention of Japan and China, although its effect is the same as the original Lodge proposal. It was thought by some of the Democrats that the alteration would make the reservation less offensive to Japan. Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, and Senator Sutherland of West Virginia, Republican, voted against the modification.

U. S. Withholds Assent.

As altered the reservation reads:

"The United States withholds its assent to articles 156, 157, and 158 (the Shantung settlement provisions) and reserves full liberty of action with respect to any controversy which may arise under said articles."

Senator Hitchcock offered a mild substitute for the reservation, which was defeated, 41 to 27. The final vote on the reservation as modified was 69 to 21, all the negative votes being Democratic.

"Phrase Spinning," Says McCormick.

One of the most acrid debates of the treaty discussion broke out when Senator McCormick of Illinois charged that the treaty compromise negotiations were nothing but "phrase spinning," designed to befuddle the public.

Senator Lodge, Republican leader, retorted heatedly that it was "a dangerous thing for one man to endeavor to interpret other men's motives." Nevertheless, he announced that he would offer no more of the bi-partisan compromises. This statement pleased the irreconcilables and irritated the "mild reservationists," including Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, who threatened a new bolt.

"To What Purpose?"

"To what purpose are we spending time here day by day discussing reservations?" asked Senator McCormick. "We sit here like a lot of medieval theologians discussing how many angels can dance on the point of a needle. All this is said to be in the interest of compromise. God save the mark!"

Senator Lodge took the floor at once and insisted that he had to listen to proposals of compromise, but added that he would offer no more of the changes tentatively agreed to in the bipartisan conference.

"Maybe we'll make some headway now," commented Senator Borah.

"I want it understood that statement won't prevent my offering changes in the reservations," interrupted Senator Kellogg.

"Of course not," retorted Senator Lodge. "You can offer all the changes you want."

Senator Williams of Mississippi, broke into the debate with a sarcastic remark about all the bipartisan compromises falling by the wayside.

"Yes," agreed Senator Lodge, "just where your treaty has fallen. And I don't care."

"That's what I thought all along," Senator Williams retorted.

Considerable wrangling occurred over reservation number 7 under which no one is authorized to represent the United States in the league without authority of congress. The bipartisan conference rewrote the original reservation leaving its meaning the same.

Walsh Sponsors His Child.

When Democratic senators who had taken part in the bi-partisan conference showed no inclination to support the change, Senator Lodge withdrew it. Thereupon Senator Walsh of Montana, who wrote it, offered it himself. Eight Republicans—Cummins, Edge, Kellogg, Keyes, Hale, McNary, New, and Townsend—allied with the Democrats and the Walsh substitute carried.

Compromisers who have refused to give up hope of ratification were busier than ever today. Senator Kellogg brought out a new spring suit for article 10. It was received with considerable admiration on the Democratic side.

There were interchanges between Senator Watson of Indiana, Republican, and Senator Simmons of North Carolina, Democrat, and finally the Democrats sent Senator Carter Glass down to the White House with a copy to show to the president.

Glass did not see the president, but left a copy with Secretary Tumulty, who expects to show it to Wilson as soon as possible. The reservation is virtually the same as the Lodge reservation with a few new words added.

HOLLAND DEFIES ALLIES; WILL BE KAISER'S BARNUM

THE HAGUE, March 4.—The draft of Holland's answer to the second allied note regarding the extradition of the former German emperor, is completed. It is learned that Holland, while reiterating her refusal to surrender Wilhelm, expressed her willingness to guard him and also her realization of the necessity of safeguarding the world's peace.

Will Draw Tourists.

[By Special Cable.]

PARIS, March 4.—Holland will refuse the allies' demand that the former kaiser be sent to some Dutch possession instead of remaining in the Netherlands. Reply by the foreign office at The Hague to Millerand's last note is expected next week. The Dutch already have drafted a response in which they reiterate their refusal to surrender the former kaiser and deny the allies have a right to name the place where Mr. Hohenzollern will be interned, but they promise to keep him under stricter surveillance.

From an attaché of the Dutch ministry in Paris it is learned that one of the chief reasons why the thrifty Dutch intend to keep the former kaiser at Doorn or Amerongen is because in future the former war lord will draw lots of sightseers and tourists

GERMAN CLAIMS CLAUSE SACRED, FRANCE TO SAY

Must Not Be Modified in Treaty.

PARIS, March 4.—[By the Associated Press.]—The French government will make determined opposition to any revision of the treaty of Versailles that would modify her claims on Germany.

The attitude of the French government, according to the official point of view, is in perfect accord with the sentiment of the new chamber of deputies. It is held that any further concessions to Germany would not be tolerated by parliament, and, if made, the government would be overthrown.

Overlook France's Distress.

The French official view of the economic situation, it was stated in authoritative circles today, is quite the same as that set forth in London—that is, that all Europe must be put on a prosperous basis. The French, however, it was pointed out, are beginning to think their allies have forgotten that France herself is not on a prosperous basis and not in a position to make concessions that would affect her own economic interests to any one, least of all to Germany.

Will Bar Hapsburg Rulers.

LONDON, March 4.—Members of the supreme council are determined to adhere to the refusal to allow a restoration of the Hapsburgs in either Austria or Hungary, it is stated in answer to inquiries regarding Roumanian fears that the appointment of Admiral Horthy as Hungarian regent means the return of the former rulers of that country.

Recognition of the soviet government in Russia, it is stated in the same quarters, has been discussed, but no definite conclusion has been reached. Other matters affecting relations with Russia have also been debated and it is recognized all the allies have an option of beginning trade with soviet Russia if they wish.

The Evening Standard today says the supreme council has decided to allow Germany to make an international loan.

Portrait of Henry Laurens, Notable of 1776, Found

LONDON, March 4.—A long lost portrait of Henry Laurens, who was president of the American congress in 1777 and 1778, and one of the leaders in the American revolution, recently was discovered in a country house at Clonmel, Ireland, near Tipperary, according to the London Times. The portrait was painted by John Singleton Copley. The portrait, says the newspaper, was purchased by dealers and sent to the United States two days ago.

WASHINGTON NEWS —IN BRIEF—

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Washington Bureau of The Tribune.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.

NEW Jersey filed with the Supreme court an attack on the constitutionality of the national prohibition amendment, and the court set next Monday for hearing the Rhode Island plea to declare the amendment null and void. An attempt in the house to repeal the Volstead enforcement act was defeated. Roger Sullivan warned Democrats to avoid the liquor issue, asserting that with the country overwhelmingly dry any party adopting a wet platform would court disaster.

THE senate today adopted the first modification to the Lodge reservations to the treaty, voting 69 to 2 to change the Shantung reservation by eliminating all reference to China and Japan.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PALMER in his first political speech since open admission of his presidential aspirations made a plea for organized labor.

THE president's bituminous coal commission is having a hard time reaching a decision as to wage and price alterations. Two of the commission, it is said, have tentatively concluded that the miners are entitled to 30 per cent instead of the government's 14 per cent increase.

WILSON REPLIES TO ALLIES' LAST NOTE ON FIUME

Washington, D. C., March 4.—President Wilson's rejoinder to the last note of the French and British premiers on the Adriatic situation was dispatched to Europe tonight. Its context was not disclosed by the state department.

In preparing his answer President Wilson had before him the proposal of the premiers that the United States join in seeking a settlement of the Adriatic problem through direct negotiations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia.

The president was invited to participate in a joint proposal to Italy and Jugo-Slavia to this effect.

CITY EMERGES SMILING FROM 'RECORD STORM'

Forecast Is Modified; Fair Today.

Chicago, emerging last night from a brief but busy snowstorm that impeded railroad, street car and vehicle traffic and impaired telephone and telegraph service, was promised respite today in the form of fair weather with a return tomorrow perhaps of the spring time balminess that prevailed Wednesday.

The temperature, which receded sharply yesterday, registered 20 above zero at midnight, unofficial. At the weather bureau it was said no extreme cold was expected; that a minimum of five above might be recorded by morning, but that it was problematical. A special bulletin issued early yesterday that the "most intense cold in 30 years" was in sight, was greatly modified in the afternoon.

Blizzard in Rockies.

The storm developed from a blizzard originating in the Rocky mountain states Wednesday. It soon became general over the middle west and northwest. Transcontinental railroad, traffic, hampered by drifting snow, was in some instances suspended.

Passenger trains from the west and north arrived from three to eight hours late. Among the roads to suffer were the Santa Fe, the St. Paul, and the Northwestern. Snowslides in the mountains also impaired telephone and telegraph communication with California, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana.

Street Traffic Impeded.

In Chicago the storm had its effect upon the elevated railroads and street cars. Snowplows and sweepers were busy throughout the day, but running schedules were considerably demoralized.

Local as well as steam traffic conditions were reported as normal early this morning.

PARIS, March 4.—Countess de Suzannet, formerly Mary Constance Knower-Drayton of New York, died this morning of meningitis at her home in Paris, leaving an 18 months' baby.

The Countess de Suzannet was a daughter of the late Benjamin Knower, a wealthy New York dry goods merchant. Before her debut in society she married Henry Coleman Drayton, a grandson of the late Mrs. William Astor. She divorced him in 1907. She married Count de Suzannet in 1911.

'THE STURMER OF FRANCE,' BRAND ON M. CAILLAUX

Former Friend Sears the Alleged Intriguer.

PARIS, March 4.—It was ambassador's day at the trial of former Premier Joseph Caillaux before the senate sitting as a high court, on the charge of having intrigued to promote a premature and dishonorable peace with Germany.

Three former French ambassadors at Madrid, Petrograd, and Berlin were the first witnesses for the prosecution. They were William Martin, Maurice Paleologue, and Jules Cambon, and their evidence was as varied as their opinions concerning the accused.

Exonerates M. Caillaux.

M. Paleologue, after informing the court that he realized he faced a man who was defending his honor and perhaps his life, and would weigh every word, launched into a scathing arraignment of M. Caillaux. He concluded by dramatically pointing an accusing finger at the prisoner and shouting:

"You are the Sturmer of France."

[Boris Sturmer, former Russian premier, with the late Monk Rasputin and former Minister of the Interior Protopopoff, formed the trio known as "The Dark Forces" of Russia, alleged to have aroused the Russians to revolt against the regime of Emperor Nicholas.]

The court was in an uproar, with M. Moro-Giafferi, of counsel for Caillaux, protesting violently.

Defends Honor of Accused.

M. Cambon reviewed the Agadir negotiations. He said Caillaux never gave him instructions in any way deviating from the policy followed by other premiers and ministers of foreign affairs toward Germany. He declared he was convinced that Caillaux acted in the best interests of France and was imbued with patriotism toward the country.

"Caillaux acted in the Agadir negotiations in a manner which does him the greatest honor," M. Cambon said in concluding his testimony. "I told him so then and I am prepared to say so now."

Spanish King Threatened.

M. Martin reported a conversation which he had with King Alfonso of Spain previous to his departure for Paris in January, 1912, in which it was alleged that Caillaux had sent an emissary to the king threatening him with death. King Alfonso, according to M. Martin, said that while not afraid of the threat, he had made note of it and placed a copy in a safe place so that the truth would be known should anything happen.

The court will decide tomorrow whether documents produced by Caillaux in denial of this story shall be disclosed.

Asks Defendant to Explain.

The public prosecutor, Theodore Lescouve, concluded his cross examination of Caillaux by asking him to explain a statement in his essay entitled, "The Responsible Parties," in which he said that former President Poincare at a council of ministers on Aug. 1, 1914, asked the ministers to declare war immediately upon Germany, quoting M. Poincare as saying "France does not wait until one declares war on her."

Caillaux added in the essay that M. Poincare desired war and wished it an accomplished fact before England made known its decision to join on the side of the allies, as he felt sure that if Germany were satisfied that England would enter the war there would be no war.

Question Angers Witness.

"Where did you get your information?" asked M. Lescouve.

"From the ministers of the Viviani cabinet," replied Caillaux.

"Who are they?" insisted the prosecutor.

"What do you take me for?" shouted Caillaux in a paroxysm of rage, "that I should betray the confidence placed in me by my friends. This is not a trial for intelligence with the enemy; this is a trial of one's most intimate thoughts, a trial for heresy. The document, 'The Responsible Parties,' would never have seen the light of day. You gave it publicity. You laid bare the most intimate thoughts of mine to the public. You produce the proofs."

M'ADOO URGES BILLION DOLLAR TAX REDUCTION

Wants Sinking Fund Plan Postponed.

Washington, D. C., March 4.—An immediate billion dollar reduction in federal taxes was urged in a statement issued today by William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury. The present tax burden is too great, he said, and is "having an injurious effect on business."

McAdoo proposed that collection of a tax to establish a sinking fund for retirement of the war debt, recommended by former Secretary Glass to begin with the fiscal year, 1920, be postponed for two years, and that the deferred payments of European interest be funded until Europe is in position to pay its interest charges.

Fund Billion A Year.

"The financial policies of the nation as embodied in future congressional legislation," Mr. McAdoo said, "should realize the utmost economy in expenditure and might well fund in long term bonds $1,000,000,000 per annum for two years of the amount now raised by taxation.

"Under the laws a tax to establish a one per cent sinking fund to retire bonds now outstanding is to be collected beginning with the fiscal year 1920. This might well be postponed for at least two years and thus reduce the tax burden by $250,000,000 annually. There, too, is the debt which Europe owes us and which now amounts to about $10,000,000,000. If the economic restoration of Europe had proceeded far enough so that Europe could now pay interest on this debt (as she will be able to within a few years) we should have an income of $500,000,000 from this source. But that is not now available. Why not fund that amount against the day when it will come back to us? By postponing for two years the establishment of a sinking fund and funding the deferred payments of European interest, we should cover $750,000,000 of the billion dollars by which our taxation might be reduced.

Quit Retiring Libertys.

By discontinuing purchases of Liberty bonds for retirement under provisions of existing law the treasury would be relieved of a large burden. It would seem that reduction of our tax bill for the next two years in this manner could be accomplished and that it would involve the issuance of additional bonds to the extent of probably not more than one and a half billion dollars.

"The immediate burden of taxation is too great. It is having an injurious effect on business. It is a contributing factor of large proportions in the high cost of living."

TUBE CO. PLANS $40,000,000 NEW PLANT IN GARY

Gary, Ind., March 4.—Official announcement was received here today that the National Tube company will at once begin the erection in Gary of a mammoth tube plant costing $40,000,000 and giving employment to 10,000 men. Work will start next week on the construction of four large blast furnaces, to be followed by the erection of miles of tube mills, shops, office buildings, and other structures required for the plant.

The National Tube company, which is subsidiary to the United States Steel corporation, will also construct a line of street railway into the plant at a cost of more than a million dollars, which will include the construction of a subway beneath the railroad tracks and of a steel and concrete bridge to span the Grand Calumet river.

The tube plant will be built immediately east of Gary harbor on a mile wide strip of land extending for two miles along the lake. It will cover over 1,000 acres of land. The tube company also plans to begin the erection of a large number of Gary homes for employés of the plant.

LOWDEN AGAINST WOOD; EDWARDS LEFT UNOPPOSED

Only Three Presidential Candidates in State.

Gov. Frank O. Lowden and Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood will battle it out between them on April 13 for the Illinois Republican preferential primary vote. No other presidential candidate had filed when the time limit for presenting petitions had expired at Springfield last night.

Gov. Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey has an absolutely clear field for the Democratic preferential vote—whatever that may mean to him. Roger C. Sullivan's organization took no steps to put Attorney General Palmer or William G. McAdoo in the Illinois running. The downstate friends of William J. Bryan failed to name him. Not even James O. Monroe, who hails from Illinois and who has filed in a half dozen other direct primary states, sought to get on the Democratic ballots in his home state.

Majority Now for Lowden.

Gov. Lowden will have a formidable majority of the delegates to Chicago absolutely instructed for him regardless of what factional politics may develop in Chicago or of the results of the preferential primary, which has no legal or binding effect. Gen. Wood's managers filed not a single candidate pledged to him.

Gov. Lowden, on the other hand, by pure mathematical figuring of the complete filings will have at the minimum thirty of the fifty district delegates elected as pledged to him. As a political proposition it is possible that twelve of the fifty may be elected as "no preference" men. The eight delegates at large are elected by the state convention on May 10.

Every candidate for Democratic delegate and alternate is unpledged. No one of them indicated that he is pledged to Gov. Edwards or to any other presidential candidate.

Midnight Time Limit.

The time limit for filing petitions in Chicago for Republican and Democratic ward committeemen terminated at midnight. As had been indicated, the city hall has a complete slate of candidates in the Republican primaries. In ten wards there are candidates representing each of the three fighting factions—the Brundage, Deneen, and Thompson elements. In twenty others it is a two man fight between the city hall and the Deneen forces, and in two it is a showdown between the city hall and the Brundage wing.

The Democratic contests that are substantial are confined to a half dozen wards.

List of Candidates.

The complete list of candidates seeking election as delegates to the two party conventions is given below. All of the Democratic candidates are unpledged. The candidates of the Republicans pledged to Lowden are followed by the designation [L]; those unpledged are designated [No]. The list follows:

LEGAL POINT HALTS ELECTION CONTEST CASE

Whether Judge Foell has a right to make comparison of crosses on the disputed ballots cast in the election of November, 1918, is a newly raised question which is to be hotly argued next Tuesday by attorneys representing the Republican and Democratic candidates.

Attorney Struckman, representing the Republicans, yesterday sought to introduce as evidence all of the ballots, tally sheets, and poll book in the First precinct of the Twentieth ward. Objections to the admission of the tally sheets by opposing attorneys were overruled by the judge. Struckman told the court that the tally sheets were necessary in order to demonstrate the discrepancy between the figures presented by the election officials and those to be produced by the recount now in progress.

Attorney Ira Ryner, appearing for the Democratic candidates, objected to the court's power to make comparisons of crosses and other markings on the alleged fraudulent ballots, stating that higher courts had held against it.

FRENCH SHARPEN WAR AX IN SHADE OF OLIVE BRANCH

Col. Reilly Reveals How Army Is Reorganized.

BY COL HENRY J. REILLY.
ARTICLE VII.

[Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.]

The French people, as a whole, are just as tired of war as anybody else, and just as anxious to escape going to war again, particularly as they undoubtedly suffered more in proportion to their various resources than any other nation which took part, not excepting Germany. This is particularly true as to numbers mobilized and total killed and wounded. Nevertheless, there is no talk nor desire to give up the principle of universal military service in time of peace, in order that the nation may be properly prepared to defend itself in time of war. Marshal Foch's statement as to the greatest lesson of the late war was the old adage: "In time of peace prepare for war," expressed in other words.

In general, the question of reorganization comes under two heads—the constitution of the various units and staffs making up the army and the length of time each young Frenchman will be required to serve.

Reorganization of Army.

Along with universal military service will be kept the principle of dividing the army into two forces, the metropolitan army and the colonial army.

As a first step in reorganization, the superior council of war has been reconstituted by an official decree. At the time the war broke out Marshal Joffre was vice president of this council and also chief of the general staff of the army. The new decree separates these two positions, as was the case prior to 1911, when the change of policy took place which led to the resignation of Gen. Michel and the appointment of Gen. Joffre as his successor.

The president of the council always is the minister of war, thus insuring its action in accordance with the policy of the government in power. The president of the republic may, if he sees fit, preside at any meeting.

The vice president of the council will be Marshal Petain. In addition there will be Marshals Joffre and Foch, Gen. Buat, who has been appointed chief of the general staff, and nine major generals, chosen from among the general officers who commanded an army corps for at least a year during the present war and whose services are considered to have shown them capable of commanding a group of armies in wartime.

Must Consult Council of War.

The minister of war must consult the superior council of war on all questions having to do with the organization of the army, the instruction, equipment, and supply of troops, mobilization, concentration, the building of new strategical railways and roads, military aviation, the adoption of new weapons, the improvement of existing weapons, the creation or suppression of fortresses and fortified regions, the organization of systems of defense on the land, frontiers and sea coasts, and all other measures affecting the army and preparation for war.

In time of war the chief of the general staff becomes the chief of staff of the army in the field. One of the subchiefs of staffs, with the rank of major general, will in case of war remain at the capital with the minister of war and be the chief of staff of the army outside the zone of operations.

This system insures a perfect coöperation between the government and the military authorities, and also does away with the necessity for any changes, reorganization, or other violent and hasty measures when war comes.

GERARD BOOSTS FOR LEAGUE IN DAKOTA TALK

Mitchell, S. D., March 4.—James W. Gerard, speaking for the Democratic presidential indorsement, devoted his address to a refutation of arguments against the league of nations.

The former ambassador's attack was directed against the anti-league speech delivered here Tuesday night by Senator Hiram Johnson.

"When orators denounce the league and declare that England is to have six votes and the United States but one, read the covenant of the league and discover the truth for yourselves," said Mr. Gerard. "The league is governed by two bodies. In one every colony of England has a vote, but in the other each nation has but one vote, and to be effective any measure must pass the approval of both these bodies.

"It is also true that Cuba, far more under the control of the United States than Canada is under the control of England, also has one vote. So do San Salvador, Honduras, Hayti, and many others.

He declared himself in favor of immediate action on the part of congress to accept the treaty with or without reservations, as might be easier.

Crane's Nomination Sent to Senate by President

Washington, D. C., March 4.—The nomination of Charles R. Crane of Chicago to be minister to China was sent to the senate today by President Wilson.

LABOR LEADERS' TALK SETS BACK DAYLIGHT PLAN

'Rich Man's Law,' Says Head of Teamsters.

The daylight saving plan met with another delay yesterday when the judiciary committee asked the city council to send the proposed measure back to it for further consideration. This action was taken after labor leaders had appeared before the committee and flatly stated that organized labor would not abide by the ordinance if it was adopted.

John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, contended that the Chicago Association of Commerce "bought and paid for" the signatures to the petition asking that the ordinance be passed. Other signatures, he said, were obtained through coercion by foremen.

"I am sure the rank and file of the working men will not pay any attention to this ordinance if it does pass the city council," he said.

Alderman Tells of Support.

Ald. Frank Link replied he had received more than 1,000 letters from employés asking his support of the measure, and that these letters were not "stereotyped."

Edward N. Nockels declared that if the Chicago Association of Commerce wanted to give employés an extra hour of daylight, it could do so by cutting down the working hours to seven. W. A. Neer, president of the Teamsters' council, characterized it as a "rich man's law" and "a golf playing proposition."

Others who attacked it were William Quesse, head of the janitors' union; Prof. Henry J. Cox, weather forecaster, and A. E. Barradell, athletic coach at Englewood High school, who presented a mathematical analysis showing it rained on two-fifths of the days covered by the ordinance.

Roads to Adopt Plan.

Corporation Counsel Ettelson received a letter from Charles T. Stevens stating the Pennsylvania railroad and New York Central lines in the east were planning to change their schedules for operating suburban service in order to conform with the general spread of the daylight saving idea.

MOTHER, GIRL AND DOG FOIL GUNMEN IN BANK ROBBERY

Holdup Men Get $5,000 Loot at Store.

Holdup of a bank and a jewelry store and the alleged kidnaping of a bank messenger featured yesterday's activities in crime circles.

Mrs. John J. Slomski and her 19 year old daughter, Gertrude, were alone in their private bank at 2159 West Eighteenth street, the proprietor of which was killed in 1915 by robbers, when two men with revolvers entered.

One, described as a Lilliputian, stood guard at the door, while the other, 6 feet in height, commanded "hands up." A lone customer, John Zalewski of 2640 West Twenty-fourth street, complied. Not so the ladies, nor the Slomski dog, Gen. Kosciusko.

Woman Gives Battle.

Mrs. Slomski, who was in the cashier's cage, began screaming. The 6 footer stepped across the counter and slapped her on the mouth. Gen. Kosciusko bit him in the calf of the right leg. He yelled. Mrs. Slomski swung a Jack Johnson to his nose with her right and scratched his eyes with her left.

"Help!" cried the robber.

Gertrude, who had been sitting in the bookkeeper's cage, interrupted with:

"Police! Fire! Murder!"

"Stop that and throw up your hands or we'll kill you!" shouted the Lilliputian.

Girl's Flight Scares Thieves.

Gertrude did neither. She jumped down from the stool, ran out the cage and through a door that opened on to the stairs communicating with the second floor of the bank building, where the Slomskis live. The six footer and Mrs. Slomski were still battling. But when Gertrude made her escape he freed himself, jumped back over the counter and with his companion ran out the front door, with Gen. Kosciusko in close pursuit.

They jumped into a flivver they had left at the curb and drove away. They had obtained nothing but some registered mail, overlooking $500 in cash.

Mrs. Slomski's husband was killed by robbers on May 4, 1915.

Pleads for Father's Life.

Five thousand dollars in cash and jewels was obtained by three robbers at the jewelry store of Julius Corman, 2622 West Division street. Corman's seven year old son, Bernard, kept pleading with the men not to shoot his father as they had threatened. The mother, carrying a nineteen month old child, walked in on the robbers. They locked her and Mr. Corman in a closet and then robbed the store at their leisure.

Sixteen year old Dorsey Grotts, messenger for the Drovers national bank, 4201 South Halsted street, was detained by the police yesterday after he had lost $900 in cash and a $100 check which he was carrying to the Stockyards exchange. He said he had been struck over the head and robbed.

Arrest Gormley, Eloping Chauffeur; Charge Perjury

Gormley, the Los Angeles, Cal., chauffeur who eloped with and married Helen Kelly, an heiress, and whose former wife complicated matters by having his divorce from her set aside by a Las Vegas, Nev., judge, was arrested here this evening on a charge of perjury. WILSON WANTS GOLF PILL; "NO," GRAYSON SAYS

Washington, D. C., March 4.—President Wilson is becoming impatient at the restrictions placed on his recreation and, following his automobile ride yesterday, has discussed with Rear Admiral Grayson, his physician, the possibility of playing golf in the near future.

Dr. Grayson said today, however, that it probably would be several weeks before the president would be permitted to make a "round."

It was learned at the White House today that there is no present plan for the president to leave Washington. His physicians are understood to believe that he would now be more benefited by remaining at home than he would be by a sea voyage, as he can best follow out here his desire to keep in intimate touch with official business.

H. E. BYRAM SEES NO STOP SIGNS FOR RAILROADS

Revenue Chief Trouble; That Is Analyzed.

Surrounded by great gobs of optimism, H. E. Byram, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, talked yesterday about the future of the transportation interests.

"We have problems, that's true," said President Byram. "But I can see none that are insurmountable. Under the new law, the interstate commerce commission has the railroads of the United States in the palm of its hand, so to speak. Our future, our credit, our expansion plans, in fact, everything, depend upon the action taken by the commission.

More Revenue Essential.

"The most important thing to us is the problem of getting more revenue, but we look at it in the light that it is necessary to the well being of the country that the railroads prosper and therefore we cannot be denied the needed increase in income.

"Most railroad executives think the passenger rates are about right and want them kept where they are. They feel that a boost in freight rates is practically obligatory and they await only the indication of the commission that it is ready to hear our case, to put forward the facts showing our needs.

"I feel that the labor situation is very comfortable. Under the new law the unions will be forced to consider arbitration before striking and most strikes will not stand the light of arbitration and reasoning."

Freight Rates Applied to Food.

Tables showing how the proposed 25 per cent increase in freight rates will effect Chicagoans on their essential foodstuffs, were prepared for THE TRIBUNE yesterday by railroad statisticians.

On a 25 pound sack of flour billed from Minneapolis, the increase will be ¾ of a cent. On a five pound sack of sugar the increase will be 56-100ths of 1 penny, shipped from New Orleans.

On coffee shipped from New York City, the raise will be 11-100ths of a cent per pound. The increased tariff on a pair of shoes will be 43-100ths of 1 cent.

It will cost 9-100ths of a cent more to ship a dozen of eggs from Des Moines, Ia., under the proposed rates.

With sentiment strongly favoring a strike to enforce their demands for more pay and better working conditions, 350 general and terminal chairmen and assistants and fourteen vice presidents of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employés and Railway Shop Laborers opened a conference here yesterday morning to thrash over their troubles.

After meeting for several hours as a body, the conferees, representing nearly 400,000 railroad men, divided up into a dozen or more committees to handle the matter by regions, with instructions to complete their work by Monday, when another general meeting will be held. The committees immediately started on their work in rooms at various hotels.

HARD TO PUSH COAL WAGES UP, KEEP PRICE DOWN

Washington, D. C., March 4.—[Special.]—The president's bituminous coal commission is reported to be having a hard time reaching a decision on the wage and coal price problems, submitted to them for solution after the coal strike was called off last December.

Two members of the commission, Mr. Peal and Mr. White, representatives of the operators and miners, respectively, are said to have reached a tentative conclusion that the miners should get 15 6-10 per cent increase in wages above the 14 per cent granted by the Garfield decision. This would mean a total wage increase of approximately 30 per cent, the figure recommended by Secretary of Labor Wilson.

H. M. Robinson, representative of the public, it is declared, has not assented to these figures and the other commissioners are also dubious, chiefly because of the coal price problem. The president urged the commission to reach a unanimous conclusion if possible, both as to prices and wages.

The commissioners are particularly anxious not to increase coal prices and may reach a compromise conclusion on wages, bringing their recommendation down to 5 or 6 per cent above the 14 per cent. Even then, it is argued, they may recommend a slight increase in coal price.

TRAPPED IN FAKE CONFESSION TO SAVE CELLMATE

Harry Olson, a missionary's son who turned highway robber, was eager to confess yesterday in Judge Anton Zeman's court, but Assistant State's Attorney James S. Stewart was unwilling to let him.

Olson was present in court to say that it was he, and not Bernard O'Brien of 3622 Polk street, who had taken a $300 diamond pin and $40 from Paul Batt, a cigaret manufacturer of 409 Oakwood boulevard, at a revolver's point on the evening of Nov. 21. Olson, O'Brien's cellmate in the county jail, had admitted ten or more stickups, so what harm could one more do?

"What did you do with the stick pin?" the prosecutor demanded.

"What stick pin?" Olson inquired.

So the fate of O'Brien will be committed to a jury today.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., 45,566; increase, 12,755, or 38.9 per cent.

John Barleycorn Gone, Missouri Jail Is Closed

CARRANZA OPENS MEXICO'S DOORS TO CHICAGOANS

Assures Them of Safety, but Bandits Laugh.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.
[By Special Correspondence.]

Mexico City, Feb. 20.—President Carranza received a delegation of Chicago business men yesterday in the reception chamber of the national palace. An interpreter was present. Wine was served. The visitors, headed by John W. Thomas and H. H. Garver of the Chicago Association of Commerce, presented the "first chief" with a resolution thanking him for the fine hospitality shown to them in the Mexican capital.

They found no weakling in the president's chair. President Carranza is a big man, physically and mentally. His face is strong, yet kindly.

Land of Opportunity.

He said he wanted his visitors to return to the states with the message to the American people that this was no land of barbarians and Indians, torn by strife, an unsafe and dangerous place, but a land of opportunity for Americans, a land of stable conditions, and a high civilization of its own. He said he had been in the United States and realized that Mexico had few friends there. He was confronted, he said by the work of an unfriendly press in the United States.

The picture of Mexican life usually presented to Americans, he declared was not a true, but a distorted picture. They were shown ragged Indians and bandits when they should be shown fine and prosperous cities, with wide clean, well paved streets, and splendid shops. They were shown pictures of ruined homes and railroads when they should be shown something of the great industries here that produce paper and cloth, the smelters, the great silver mines, the oil fields, the fiber industry.

Open Door to Yankees.

The president invited the visitors to go into any part of Mexico they desired, assuring them they would find safety and welcome in big cities. Several of the delegates have been to Vera Cruz and Guadalajara.

Despite the president's assurances, travel is still slow, uncertain, and unsafe in most places outside the federal district controlled by the present government.

The two new armored cars at Buena Vista station, great steel structures of war gray, filled with portholes, turreted for sentries, testify to this.

The government is trying sincerely to keep traffic open and protect traffic, but every once in a while a train is blown up. Whenever a train leaves Mexico City there is an element of uncertainty as to its arrival at destination. Soldiers have guarded the Americans on all their trips and exploring trains have been sent out ahead of the trains on which Americans were riding.

Zapatista Gives Up.

Rebels are operating in the hills of Oaxaca state under the federal general, Albino Cerrilla. The state of Morelos, where the Zapatista leader, Marmolejo, has been active, is now said to be pacified through the surrender of this leader. Villa is still up north, said to be in command of 2,000 men. Peleaz is in the Tampico region. The capture of Lalave is said to have made the Vera Cruz country safer. Jesus H. Salgado has just been killed in a battle with federal troops in the state of Guerrero.

But new leaders spring up and banditry is a profession in Mexico, as robbery is a profession in Chicago.

Miss Dorothy Idah Shaw and Walter Clark Gibbons have been married twice within a week. Last Saturday the couple slipped down to Crown Point for reasons matrimonial. Yesterday at St. Ita's church they were wedded again. This time the bride's mother, Mrs. Idah L. Wayne of 1222 North Shore avenue, was present. The parents of the groom, County Treasurer and Mrs. Harry R. Gibbons of 5400 Sheridan road, are at Hot Springs, where the doubly married pair will join them tomorrow.

BOSSES OPPOSE WAGE BOOST AS BAR TO BUILDING

Cite 'Home Famine'; Fight Any Added Expense.

Sixty contractors, material dealers, and architects, conferring yesterday on conditions in the building industry, adopted a resolution declaring conditions would not warrant an increase in wages.

Cite Home Shortage.

It read:

"Whereas, there was practically no home or essential building construction during the war, and there is in Chicago a widespread shortage of homes, resulting in high rents; and,

"Whereas, building will not increase and rents will not go down until a great deal of building is done, and the necessary building will not proceed if the costs of labor and material increase; and,

"Whereas, it is to the interest of the general public, including the building mechanics themselves, all of whom must have homes, that the cost of these homes should not be increased; therefore be it

"Resolved, that it is the sense of the meeting that conditions in the building industry at the present time are such as to not warrant any increase in wages."

Homes First, Is Cry.

"It was the consensus of opinion at the conference that the home building industry should be put on an essential basis by the government, and that railroad freight cars should be released to enable material manufacturers to ship their products," said E. M. Craig, secretary of the Building Construction Employers' association. After adopting the resolutions the meeting adjourned subject to call.

A. E. Coleman, president of the contractors' association, presided at the conference, and Edward Hines, lumber merchant, was one of the speakers.

A proposed meeting of the contractors and representatives of the building trades unions to discuss an increase in wages of from $1 to $1.25 an hour will be held next week.

Mexico City, March 4.—W. O. Jenkins, former United States consular agent at Puebla, is to be expelled from Mexico in consequence of his alleged dealings with rebels, according to insistent reports here.

Manuel Gonzalez, leader of the band which shot and killed Augustus Morrill, formerly American consult at Manzanillo, on Feb. 26, has been killed by pursuing government troops, according to semi-official statements.

CORPORATIONS GET TO MAY 15 TO COMPLETE INCOME TAX RETURNS

The commissioner of internal revenue announced yesterday in Washington an extension until May 15 for the filing of complete corporation income tax returns. Tentative returns, however, must be in by March 15.

The official announcement states:

"Each return must be accompanied by at least one-fourth of the estimated amount of tax due, together with a statement setting forth the reason why the return cannot be completed within the prescribed time and a formal request for the extension. Any deficiency in the first installment will bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

"An extension of time is hereby should be written plainly across the face 'tentative return.' Only the estimated amount of tax due need be granted the corporations in such cases to file completed returns on or before May 15, 1920. The tentative return submitted in accordance with the foregoing should be on form 1120, on which stated."

HOSPITAL LOSES NOTES REGARDING CHAMBLISS CASE

Wiebeck Girl's Record Is Reported Stolen.

Thirty pages of records bearing on the death of Bertha Wiebeck have been purloined from the county hospital.

The theft became public yesterday after the state had obtained from Judge Stelk in the Municipal court a grant of twelve additional days in which to perfect its evidence against Dorsey Chambliss, the Negro ex-policeman whom Bertha, who was 17 and from Pawnee Rock, Kas., accused of placing her in a disreputable house, and of participating with other Negroes in outrageous treatment of her.

Just how important a bearing the records had upon Chambliss' guilt or innocence of the white girl's charges remains in doubt.

Inquiry Demanded.

An investigation by the hospital authorities has been demanded.

According to Dr. W. T. Rogers, an interne, who ministered to Bertha in her illness from a disease she contracted while held prisoner, the records detail her story as she narrated it to him.

They set forth, too, the history of her progress in the hospital, of the operation she was obliged to undergo, and of her subsequent discharge. It was during this period, the state says, that her health was undermined so that she succumbed to pneumonia.

For her first convalescence she was taken to the Juvenile Detention home, but was returned shortly to the hospital.

Believes Second Record Safe.

"The records were originally in ward 40," said Dr. Rogers, "but after Bertha was sent to the Juvenile home they were placed in the library. On her readmittance a new record was started and I believe that is safe.

"The disappearance of the file from the library was discovered when Miss Laura Ebel, in charge of Mr. Hoyne's social service bureau, came here to inquire into the case."

Both Judge Stelk and Ald. Louis B. Anderson of the Second ward, who is Chambliss' counsel, expressed indignation yesterday at the attention which Bertha's charges are attracting among women's clubs and in the newspapers.

Judge Criticizes Press.

"It is unfair on the part of the press," the judge declared, "to induce people to write the character of letters I have been receiving. A man's rights under the statute mean nothing."

"Yes," agreed Anderson. "I have half a dozen letters here. Three of them tell me my days are numbered."

At the end of his comment Judge Stelk, however, granted the state's request for a continuance, with Chambliss held in the jail meanwhile.

State's Attorney Hoyne said yesterday he received letters from every state in the union demanding that Chambliss be brought to justice.

Gov. Henry Allen of Kansas was a visitor in Chicago. He recently wired Gov. Lowden asking that all possible steps to punish Chambliss be taken.

"I have received scores of appeals from friends and relatives of the dead girl," he said. "As far as I am concerned the matter is up to the Illinois authorities."

EXTRAVAGANT ECONOMY.

The urgent deficiency bill omits an item of $3,000,000 for repairs on naval vessels. If other funds are available for this purpose this action may be justified, but if to save money our naval craft are to lie up in harbor with their costly equipment deteriorating at a rapid rate the alleged economy is in fact criminal waste.

No solvent private enterprise would commit such folly. Naval vessels and their equipment are complicated mechanisms which must be constantly cared for. The rate of depreciation is rapid and money "saved" by neglect is many times wasted. Saving at the spigot and wasting at the bunghole is a weak expression for such stupid folly.

But it is not merely money waste. When ships are not in condition they must be laid up and their crews, if not dismissed, degenerate in discipline and organized efficiency. The whole navy is seriously weakened.

The navy is our first line of defense, and a first line of defense which is not always ready is no defense. Our army has almost disappeared. It will take time to reorganize it even on modest lines. It will never be adequate, even approximately, unless universal training is adopted. In such a situation neglect of our first line of defense, the navy, cannot be excused.

Opposition to necessary expenditures for naval upkeep and to army and navy pay increases essential to the maintenance of our trained personnel is a deplorable exhibition of shortsightedness and penny wisdom.

MURDER AND SENTIMENTALISM.

Margaret Selthamier confessed killing a man. She admitted to an intimacy which led to homicide. The newspapers contained her amazing revelations of delinquency and her violent intolerance of the law. In spite of this record, women connected with the Juvenile court appeared in her trial, testified in her behalf, and the girl was acquitted.

The jury was confronted with the spectacle of a bold, willful, and vicious girl, confessing homicide, apparently under the mantle of the very courts which are expected to protect the public from criminals.

Delinquency would appear to be not alone among those accused of crime. Delinquency seems obvious among those sworn to suppress crime. The proof in this particular case develops most startlingly. Margaret Selthamier no sooner is acquitted of the charge of murder than she incites revolt in the House of the Good Shepherd, assaults those who have her in charge, and displays all the tendencies so glibly denied by her one time sponsors.

Softness in the courts made possible the acquittal of this girl who killed a man. It is the kind of softness that contributes to the obstruction of justice so lamentable in Chicago. Even when the courts would deliver justice, special pleadings are interpolated to the end that mercy goes to the murderer and scorn to the murdered.

STABILIZING INDUSTRY.

The central competitive field coal operators are urging the president's bituminous coal commission to recommend legislation which will make employés' organizations responsible for the fulfillment of their contracts with employers. In support of this appeal the operators charge that in face of so-called "strike proof" contracts with the miners' unions there were more than one hundred strikes in 1918 and 1919.

The operators contend that in order to make an equitable wage agreement with the miners they must be able to figure with reasonable accuracy upon the average number of days to be worked in a year, and the attendant overhead expense incurred without income when the mines are idle. The truth of that contention goes without argument.

If the employers reach a wage agreement based upon such calculation and upon a price fixed by the government, and the miners for various reasons refuse to work, it is obvious that the operators will lose. If the loss is sufficient it will mean extensive closing of mines and the retarding of other industries. The miner loses his income during the strike, but the operator loses both income and capital.

This is evidently unjust both to the operators and to the life of the nation which is dependent upon an assured supply of coal. If a remedy to prevent such a development can be provided by legislation it should be provided. Neither miners nor operators can be assured of fair returns unless both take definite responsibility for carrying out their agreements.

Arrangement for fixing such responsibility and forcing the execution of agreements will stabilize both labor and capital. It might well apply to other labor organizations as well as to the miners.

Operators in other manufacturing fields face much the same difficulty as the coal operators. They have no provision to recover from irresponsible labor organizations the losses which follow unexpected abrogation of agreements by such organizations. For that reason they provide insurance against such losses by setting a price upon their products which will cover fluctuations in costs of production.

Legislative provision of a method by which the manufacturer can hold his organized employés to their agreements would to a great extent fix his costs of production for the various periods covered by such agreements. It would eliminate the necessity of charging such fluctuation chances to the purchaser of his commodities. That would help to reduce prices to the consumer and at the same time lessen risks in industry.

Conservative and well managed unions would not object to such stabilization. Radical and ill managed ones should be brought to see the error of their ways.

The prosperity of both capital and labor depends upon the stability of industry. Everything possible should be done to assure that stability.

THE LEGION SAVES SEATTLE.

The defeat of the radical labor candidate for mayor of Seattle by Maj. Hugh Caldwell, a veteran of the American expeditionary forces, is plain indication of how an American community will act on the issue of Americanism. Duncan, the radical, had been active in the recent revolutionary disturbances in Seattle and represented a powerful backing of discontent which had been organizing for years in an extreme form in the northwest. Former Mayor Ole Hansen, with the help of service men, put down an attempt to sovietize Seattle, but the radical organizations and sympathizers carried the struggle into the election of his successor and were strong enough to poll 34,849 votes in a total of 85,000 cast. The registered voters are about 100,000, so it appears one voter in four was not sufficiently interested to go to the polls.

The Seattle situation is, therefore, by no means what Americans would wish it to be. Nevertheless the loyalist candidate won by a comfortable majority of 16,000, or by five votes to a little more than three for his opponent. The campaign, however, shows the importance of the patriotic leadership which ex-service men, especially when organized in the American Legion, can give to a demoralized community. The legion may be said to have saved Seattle, as we believe it will save any other community where radicalism has poisoned public thought to the serious extent exhibited in Seattle and Winnipeg. The legion is the salvation of the republic, its devotion proved, its faith unshakable.

STREAM POLLUTION.

In the Voice of the People today is published a letter from Mr. George M. Wisner, chief engineer of the Sanitary district, to which we invite the attention of our readers and especially of members of the constitutional convention.

The letter deals with stream pollution, as to which there has been a great deal of excited and exaggerated talk and writing from time to time. In the convention it has been proposed that a prohibition be included which virtually would prevent the use of streams for sanitary purposes.

Mr. Wisner, who is the best instructed sanitary engineer in the country, discusses this ill advised proposal on the basis of his exceptional knowledge and experience, and we trust his expert views will be carefully considered before any action is taken on the subject of stream pollution in the convention or its committees—if indeed any action is seriously contemplated.

THE MEXICAN RIGHT TO SHOOT.

Mexico is to demand a lifting of the American embargo on arms. Liberty in Mexico demands the free and unlimited issue of firearms, and if the United States interferes with deliveries it interferes with the constitutional rights of the Mexican freeman.

It makes it harder for Mexicans to shoot Americans, and just now it works an especial hardship because there is only a year of the open season for Yanks to run. By 12 o'clock noon March 4, 1921, there may be a new Mexican policy in the process of making in Washington, and if the present American government does not allow liberty in Mexico its full freedom this year it will do an injustice to the people it tries to help.

If the Mexican constitution does not now provide in letter that each Mexican shall have the right to purchase arms in the United States to kill citizens of the United States in Mexico it does so provide in spirit, and it is an unfriendly act to keep the Mexican away from his powder.

There is an intimation that the government at Washington will remove the embargo if the Mexicans want it removed. We think it will do so. The policy has been to renew the Mexican supply whenever it was in danger of running short.

Editorial of the Day.

THE GHOST OF STATES' RIGHTS.

[From the Minneapolis Journal.]

Heaven knows, there is needed a revival of state functioning within our federal union. Indeed, if something of the sort does not occur, the federal government will be forced to what once would have been regarded as an immense usurpation. Elihu Root not so long ago warned us upon this point. But a revamping of the obsolete doctrine of states' rights in the interest of alcohol and in opposition to the eighteenth amendment, as urged by the Democratic governor of New Jersey, and somewhat faintly echoed by Vice President Marshall, would be a ridiculous finish for what was once powerful enough to produce a mighty tragedy.

The eighteenth amendment cannot be knocked out by the ghost of what perished at Appomattox. And the south itself, which retains about the only notion extant of states' rights, is that region which is especially devoted to prohibition. States' rights as champion of John Barleycorn, deceased, would be feebler even than personal liberty. The answer to the cant of personal liberty is, of course, that the constitution defined and limited all our rights from the beginning, and the eighteenth amendment only does so somewhat more definitely. The answer to states' rights is that there is no such thing when the constitution says differently.

The eighteenth amendment cannot be repealed by a political party. No party can keep united upon such a cause. If any party could, it could not secure such majorities as would be necessary for repeal. Three-fourths of the states themselves would repudiate the action in favor of their own alleged states' rights.

The one and only manner of repealing the prohibition amendment would be the manner by which it was enacted. No party enacted it. Only the people can repeal it.

AMERICA'S OPPORTUNITY.

[From the Outlook.]

We believe that Americans ought to be trained to perform their duties as citizens; that among those duties is the primary duty of defending by force of arms, if need be, the institutions of the country. We therefore believe in universal military training. But we believe that this training can be given with true regard for sound economy, the avoidance of the merely military spirit, and the protection of individual liberty. Indeed, we believe that this training will be all the better and sounder for holding fast to these traditional American safeguards.

Though the senate bill is not inconsistent with these safeguards, the country needs to be further assured that it is not departing from a traditional course which, no matter how much it has cost us in blood and wasted treasure, has still kept the civil spirit supreme.

We shall undertake to point out in subsequent issues of the Outlook some of the methods by which the country can be so assured.

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

'WARE THE IDES OF MARCH!

From the bars of a cell came a wail and a moan,
As I stood in the corridor;
And I said to the guard
Patrolling the yard,
"What the deuce is that chap in for?
He raves and he roars like a sick baboon,
And his chin is a frothy smear."
Said the guard with a grin,
"They're fast coming in;
We get 'em at this time o' year."

I listened perplexed to the maniac's drivel,
His utterance cryptical:
"Surtax! No, it's normal—
Subnormal—informal—
Abnormal and tyrannical—
Item X—my exemption—non-taxable stuff—
Are "dependants" a dog and a cat?—
Good heavens! Those tacks,
And that can of floor wax
That I spent on McGilligan's flat!"

It came to me then like a Jovian bolt—
I dropped at the turnkey's feet:
"Lock me up, pray do,
I belong there, too;
I am wholly unfit for the street."
As I tumbled inside the maniac stared,
But I mumbled the password "Deductions";
Whereupon with a cry
He fell on my tie
With the countersign, "Read the Instructions."

There we languish, two idiots, strangers but pals,
Two victims to Demos' red tape;
I babble, he drools;
We're a pair of old fools
With never a chance to escape.
Should we happen by chance to recover our minds
In a fortnight—the notion is numbing—
Here again we'll sojourn
For not making return—
Oh, they get us both going and coming!

P. S. W.

HEREAFTER, announces the secretary of the Chicago Bass club, a double-bass player shall receive an additional two dollars for carrying his doghouse inside the city limits, and three dollars for toting it outside. Rehearsals, one dollar.

THIS strikes us as a reductio ad absurdum. For, as is well known, a double-bass player acquires the strength necessary to play the instrument by the practice of carrying it on his back. He will continue to carry it, rather than trust it to a boy and a wheelbarrow, for should he discontinue the practice he would soon become as comparatively weak as a contra-bassoon.

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY.

[El Centro item.]

A theft of more than ordinary interest was reported to-day, the loser being Miss Leola Applestill, pretty daughter of Sheriff Charles Applestill, Imperial county's famous guardian of the peace. It appears that there was a Sunday-school party at the church which the Applestill family attends. Miss Applestill was one of the most popular of the young people present. It further appears that in the midst of the gaiety the lights suddenly went out. There was darkness for but a few moments, but when the lights came on again Miss Applestill's .45-caliber six-shooter had disappeared.

THE NEW LONDON BUSMAN.

(From the London Times.)

It is a legend that the old London omnibus-driver was invariably a wit and humourist. Sometimes he was; often he was not. His successor at the helm may be a combination of Voltaire and George Selwyn, but we never hear his good things, so monkish his seclusion in the driving-seat. It is the conductor who now gets all the chances. Since the war this public person has mellowed a little. He can be affable on occasion; he has learnt a new language; he has seen other lands during his military service; his mind is widened, and his heart, perhaps, softened. Here is an example of the polish which experience has put upon his mockery. Three people waited for an omnibus in Kensington. Two had mounted to the top, and the third was following, when the conductor interposed. "Only two seats empty, sir," he said. "I'm really awfully sorry. May I suggest you take the next 'bus?" Later on, as he was collecting his fares, the omnibus stopped at the Albert Hall. "Oh, is this the Albert Hall?" asked two dilatory passengers. "It is," he replied, and, as they hastily descended, he soliloquized, "Too awfully small for them to notice, I presume." From which it will be gathered that a nice employment of words—especially of such words as "awfully"—distinguishes the conductor who has been to the war from the conductor who never strayed from his beaten route.

WITH the new busman we shall have to have a new conclusion for the busman story. Something like this: "May I ask you to descend with a little more celerity, madam? Les jambes—as we used to say in Paris—les jambes c'est très peu pour moi."

To the Herald: We see by the paper last evening that there was gambling at our house. We want to tell the people of the city if the people who sent the letters would come to our house and see for themselves. In the first place my wife and myself would not allow playing for money. We allow playing cards with friends who come to our house, especially in the long winter months, in place of lying around in the city. When it is warm weather, then we are out visiting.

TREATING BURNS.

"At the packing house where I am employed one of the workmen received a very bad burn today with scalding water," J. H. writes. "The proprietor of the place insisted that the best thing that could be done was to put oil on the scalded parts. I said put nothing on it, but let the air get to it. I believe this to be the best treatment for burns. I have a daughter who was badly burned. The physician we called said the very latest treatment for burns was to use no applications of any kind, unless perhaps cold water. Simply to let the air get to the parts and keep them clean. We did this and were more than pleased with results. If this is the way to treat burns, please tell your readers."

REPLY—When the great war broke out it was the practice to cover all wounds thoroughly and to leave them with the air excluded. This practice did a lot of harm, particularly in the case of the badly infected and very dirty wounds encountered in the early days of the war. This led to a reaction and the open air treatment of wounds.

There have always been many people who believed in the open air treatment of burns. Yet, contrary to the case with other wounds, the closed treatment of burns increased in popularity during the war. The marked tendency is to cover the burn as quickly as possible and as thoroughly as possible with some sterile material which will not stick.

It is generally held that the paraffin treatment developed out of the war is a distinct gain. Dr. Wakely, who had extensive experience with burns at the battle of Jutland, treated some bad burns by spraying heavy liquid petrolatum on them and then letting them go without other dressing. The oil was sprayed on daily.

William Senger says third degree burns should be treated as any other open wound. When the washing with Dakin's fluid has made the wound nearly sterile it should be grafted. After grafts have been placed on the wound the air should not be excluded. Grafts covered over with rubber tissue or with paraffin are almost certain to die. These, however, are exceptional conditions.

For any ordinary burn the treatment is about as follows: Ease the pain by wetting the wound with sterile oil or soda solution or with picric acid solution. If no sterile solution is at hand it is better to use nothing at all. The period of first care having passed, the burn is sterilized with Dakin's solution, after which it is thoroughly dried. It is then sprayed with a 2 per cent solution of dichloramin-T and finally with paraffin. If the burn is large, after the first layer of paraffin has set a layer of gauze is laid over it and then is sprayed with paraffin. If the paraffin is used it must be thoroughly applied, enough so as to exclude the air.

Remember, however, that deep burns are to be treated as open wounds.

Soliman has proved that it does no good to incorporate antiseptics with paraffin used to cover burns. However, Senger puts some oil of eucalyptus in the paraffin he uses because it substitutes a pleasant odor for a disagreeable one. Dr. Senger is a surgeon of the Colorado Fuel and Iron and has treated more than 10,000 cases of burns.

Dr. Sherman, whose experience has been with the plants of the United States Steel corporation, likewise uses Dakin's solution and paraffin. Drs. Fauntleroy and Hoagland, who treated many burns resulting from an explosion on shipboard during the war, employ about the same method.

Dr. C. T. Thompson advocates certain don'ts in the treatment of burns. He says: Never use any kind of an antiseptic on a burn, never use salves or grease, never allow gauze dressings unparaffined to touch the raw surface, and never apply powders or any other dry dressing.

FOR FESTERED FEET.

L. H. W. writes: "In 1904 I was obliged to be on my feet, though I had festers on my heels and toes and really was in great agony. A trained nurse in the house made me do as she said. This was to soak my feet at night in a warm foot bath, with as much sulpho-naphthol in it as my skin could bear—half a teaspoonful or more, anyhow. I cannot tell you the blessing it has been to me, and I always use it at the least attack. I often oil my feet afterward. I never have had one really bad time with this trouble since I found this remedy, and I used to be laid up often."

GUM CHEWING WINS O. K.

C. L. writes: "1. Is it harmful to chew gum? A dentist told a friend of mine to chew gum, as her teeth were in a poor condition. 2. Why do my hands perspire at this time of year?"

REPLY.

1. I do not think so. Gum chewing after a heavy meal helps digestion. Purposeless hour by hour gum chewing may be harmful.

SLEEP FOR GROWING BOY.

R. G. S. writes: "What do you consider the proper amount of sleep for a boy of 14? He is in high school during the day and has no job after school. He is about 5 feet 5 inches and weighs 105 pounds. Would from 9 p. m. until 7 a. m. be too much sleep? What effect would too much sleep have?"

REPLY.

A boy who gets nine hours' sleep will not suffer from want of sleep. Ten hours should do no harm.

DRINK MORE WATER.

W. D. A. writes: "Am 48 years of age, and troubled with gas forming in my lower intestines, and no matter what I eat seems to make gas. I do not use tobacco, stimulants of any kind, or coffee. What would you suggest to remedy this condition? My blood pressure is 120."

REPLY.

You are constipated. A person can have one bowel movement a day and still be constipated. Overcome this by drinking water freely, eating bran, vegetables and fruit.

THE FRIEND OF THE SOLDIER.

FORMER OFFICER OPPOSES BONUS

Washington, D. C., March 4.—[Special.]—Opposition to soldiers' bonus legislation was expressed before the house ways and means committee today by a former service man, Walter W. Burns of Green Point, N. Y., who served as a captain of artillery. Mr. Burns, who is a patent attorney, is the first former service man to appear in opposition to any general legislation. Mr. Burns said he is a member of the American Legion, but appeared as an individual, expressing only his own views.

Because of the condition of the treasury Mr. Burns said it was not right that a large amount of money should be expended for bonuses. If action along this line had been taken immediately at the time of demobilization it would have been helpful to many discharged soldiers, he said. At the present time, however, he said that most of the soldiers have found jobs and that anybody who wants work can get it.

Advocates of a national reclamation project from the south and the west appeared before the committee in the interest of the Smith bill.

The cost to the taxpayers would be about $350,000,000, which the bill proposes to raise through a tax exempt bond issue. The rest of the money needed would be supplied by the cooperating states.

Only in one section of the bill is there any reference to former soldiers, the witnesses admitted. It is a clause providing that former service men shall have a sixty day prior right of entry in the reclaimed lands. In another sentence provision is made that the government in the actual work of reclamation shall give preference to former soldiers as employés.

ANSWER TO "BACK PAY DUE" MISINTERPRETED.

In the February 21st issue of The Tribune, under the heading "Back Pay Due," an officer asked if he could collect back pay for commutation of quarters, light, and heat for the eight months he was in service before an act providing this collection was passed. The reply given was in the affirmative.

Several officers have misinterpreted this question and the answer to it, and are under the impression that they can collect commutation for quarters occupied by their dependents. The letter referred to made no mention of dependents, but it was assumed that the officer had been stationed at a point where, under the then existing regulations, he would be entitled to commutation. Prior to April 16, 1918, no provision was made for the payment of commutation to officers for quarters occupied by their dependents, and since the act is not retroactive no claims can be made against the government for that period.

BACK TO THE FARM.

Kenilworth, Ill., March 1.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I wish to make a homestead entry. Will my twenty-six months in the service go toward proving up on the claim? Are there any lands especially set aside for ex-service men, and where? How long would I have this opportunity? Where should I write to make the entry? A. A.

The act of Feb. 28, 1918, stipulates that the time of service credited on a homestead term cannot exceed two years. Therefore twenty-four months of your service can be deducted from the three year residence term required on a homestead claim. No lands are especially set aside for soldiers.

There has been no time limit placed on this offer.

Ex-service men are to have prior rights on the North Platte and Shoshone project for sixty days, after which the land will be open for public entry.

Detailed information about any land may be obtained from the general land office, department of the interior, Washington, D. C.

PUNISHMENT BY FINE.

Chicago, March 2.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—If a wife receives an overpayment of allotment, can she be compelled by law to return it?

Can the Red Cross demand return of money given to her while ill? L. M.

Section 28 of the war risk insurance act which treats of allotments, allowances, compensation, and insurance of men in the war states that if any person entitled to payment of family allowance or compensation under this act whose right to such payment under this act ceases upon the happening of any contingency thereafter fraudulently accepts any such payment he shall be punished by fine of not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

We do not believe that any organization would demand the return of money which had been given.

OREGON HELPS ITS STUDENTS.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—Is the state of Oregon paying a bonus to ex-service men who are students? Please give me any information you may have on this question. J. G.

The state of Oregon has set aside a sum estimated to be sufficient to award to every honorably discharged soldier, sailor, and marine from the state of Oregon assistance in the sum of $25 per month, not exceeding $200 per year, for a period of not to exceed four years, while such discharged soldier, sailor, or marine is in attendance at some Oregon institution of learning. IMPENDING DISASTER.

Chicago, March 4.—[To the Friend of the People.]—At Fifteenth and Racine avenue a rubber dealer stores his old rubber away. At one time there had been an old building which literally fell apart because the owner had been storing too much rubber in it. He then erected a fence around the premises and now the fence is subject to the same fate, that of caving in. If it should cave in, some person walking on the sidewalk—Racine avenue—may be injured or killed.

Practically the same condition exists at a second place, Fourteenth place and Racine avenue, just one block away. An old junk dealer occupies these premises and he also loads so much junk against the fence which faces Racine avenue, that, as I mentioned before, it some day will cave in and injure some pedestrian walking in Racine avenue. B. J. K.

We return herewith letter regarding the condition of fences around the property at the southwest corner of Fifteenth street and Racine avenue and at Fourteenth place and Racine avenue.

The inspector who investigated this complaint reports that the fences referred to bulge slightly over the sidewalks, but that the condition is not dangerous. Notice has been served on the owner to make repairs.

INCOME TAX ON BUILDINGS.

Maquoketa, Ia., March 4.—[To the Friend of the People.]—What per cent is allowed to be deducted for wear and tear on a house valued at $3,000 and one at $1,000? On what basis is the rate determined when making out income tax return?

Three per cent on frame and 2 per cent on brick building, provided it is not your own home. Depreciation is not allowed on a home.

The rate is figured on the cost or the fair market value on March 1, 1913, if acquired prior to that date.

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

Chicago, March 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I listed my property with a broker, signing a contract giving him the exclusive agency for a period of sixty days. The contract reads that I shall receive a given amount net to me and that he shall receive all he gets over that amount. Please inform me through the Friend of the People: (1) Can he charge me a commission in addition? (2) Will he have any claim on me after the sixty days expire if he does not sell the property? (3) Will I have to notify him in advance if I decide to sell the property myself or give it to another agent? CONSTANT READER.

1. Not on the facts stated.
2. To remove all doubt, we advise you to give him written notice that his employment is terminated, if such is your wish.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

STREAM POLLUTION AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL

Chicago, March 3.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—According to the reports of the press, Guy L. Shaw, a member of the constitutional convention, is advocating that not only the board of trustees of the sanitary district, but its works, be abolished.

I do not care to comment upon the policy of doing away with the board of trustees as a legislative body, but it seems to me to be a financial and engineering mistake to entirely do away with the present method of disposing of the sewage and waste coming from the sanitary district—not only from the standpoint of the usefulness of this method to the inhabitants of the sanitary district, but also to the inhabitants of the towns and cities along the Desplaines and Illinois rivers.

From sentimental reasons a mistaken idea has grown up that the streams of the country should not in any way be polluted, but be kept in a pure and undefiled condition. By those who have given this matter study and thought the conclusion has been reached that the streams, as intended by nature, are the natural drains of the country, and from a financial standpoint they need not be kept entirely free from pollution, and that the streams should be used for carrying away human and manufacturing wastes—these wastes to be so treated as to prevent any danger to health and render the streams reasonably fit for boating and fishing. It resolves itself into a financial proposition as to how far this supplemental treatment should go. Authorities generally agree that nuisances should be avoided, but differ somewhat on the degree of protection that should be given to fish and animal life.

If the constitutional convention or the state legislature should compel the sanitary district to discontinue its present method of sewage disposal as an entirety it would impose upon the citizens of Chicago an enormous expense to take care of its wastes, an expense that would probably be in the neighborhood of $150,000,000 over and above what any contemplated plans anticipated to be used with the dilution system would be. This would also entail a large expense to all the municipalities and industries along the Desplaines and Illinois rivers.

If the entire flow of the drainage canal was cut off it would mean in the dry months of the year the Illinois river would have a discharge at Peoria of from 700 to 1,500 cubic feet per second, which is barely enough to dilute the human population's waste draining into these waterways, without taking into consideration the large industries, of which the principal ones are located at Joliet, Peoria, and Pekin.

It is estimated that there are outside of the sanitary district in the neighborhood of 250,000 people whose waste drains into these rivers, and in addition to that there are trade wastes coming from the industries now operating or soon to be operated, equivalent to the waste coming from a population of from 600,000 to 800,000. The result of this, in my opinion, would be that the Illinois river below Joliet and down to the Kankakee river and from Peoria downstream to some considerable distance below Pekin would be in the hot summer months and during the low water flow in as bad or worse condition than now, with the drainage canal flowing as it now flows.

For a number of years the board of trustees, acting upon the recommendations of the engineering department, have been preparing to supplement its dilution scheme of sewage disposal by the installation of works which will remove from the drainage canal a large percentage of its burden. The plans when carried out will practically remove all the settling solids now being discharged into the canal, and to a large extent the organic matter in solution. The general plan contemplates that within the next fifteen to twenty years, and in spite of the increasing population of this metropolitan district, there will be only 8 per cent or less, of the objectionable matter discharged into the drainage canal and thence into the Desplaines and Illinois rivers, in comparison with what is thus discharged at the present time. This 50 per cent or more of removal will include all of the settling solids and the unsightly or objectionable matter.

It is generally the opinion of water supply experts that even if the drainage canal were not built and no wastes from Chicago were discharged into the Desplaines-Illinois river that the waters of this river would not be a fit source for the public to obtain its water supply, providing that it were possible to secure water from any other source. The only sources from which these municipalities could secure their water are, to be carried by pipes or conduits from Lake Michigan, or, as it is now done, to obtain it from deep wells. Incidentally, in passing, if the drainage canal waters were shut off it would become necessary for the cities and municipalities along the Desplaines and Illinois rivers to treat their sewage and wastes. It is estimated that this would cost from $7,500,000 to $10,000,000.

Much of the opposition to the works of the sanitary district has undoubtedly been caused by the alleged overflow of the bottom lands of the Desplaines and Illinois rivers by the water discharged through the drainage canal. An estimate of the value of this property that is said to be overflowed is from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000. The policy of the district has been to pay for these damages where proof sustained that the property had been damaged. Many cases have been settled in the past, and it would be advantageous for the sanitary district to make liberal settlements rather than have the present method discontinued.

Prior to the opening of the drainage canal the Illinois river was in worse condition than it was after the opening. This was brought out in the testimony in the Illinois-Missouri case, in which the state of Missouri sought to enjoin the sanitary district from discharging its sewage down the Desplaines and Illinois rivers. The present generation does not remember the conditions that existed prior to 1900. Fish life improved in the Desplaines and Illinois rivers up to a few years ago, when the increasing population and industrial wastes during the activities of the war tended to overburden the drainage canal and the waters of the Desplaines and Illinois rivers. These conditions the sanitary district is now planning to remedy.

If the drainage canal was shut off by injunction or otherwise without giving the sanitary district the time and opportunity to purify its sewage by artificial means and to install water purification works it would result in the greatest catastrophe to the citizens of Chicago and the state of Illinois that can be imagined from a health and sanitary standpoint—not to speak of the enormous expense above referred to. To build the works necessary would take as long or longer than it will take the sanitary district to remedy conditions as they now exist, so that the water of the Desplaines and Illinois rivers will be in better condition than it is within the memory of man to recall. Such progressive treatment as is now planned will be more effective and produce better results, not only for the citizens of Chicago but also for those living along the Desplaines and Illinois rivers.

In conclusion I can only reiterate that from a sanitary and financial standpoint this doing away with the works of the sanitary district as an entirety would be a blunder that the citizens of this state would regret for many years to come.

G. M. WISNER,
Chief Engineer Sanitary District of Chicago.

NEWBERRY TRIAL DEFENSE LOSES TESTIMONY POINT

Court Rules Out Certain Letter Evidence.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 4.—Testimony which counsel for the defense characterized as "highly important" was ruled out at the start today of evidence in behalf of the eighty-five defendants left in the Newberry elections conspiracy trial. Balked in this effort the attorneys then put two defendants on the stand, interlarding their testimony with fifteen character witnesses.

The defense opened after Judge Clarence W. Sessions had denied all motions for dismissal of additional defendants and had announced that the government had established a case sufficient to warrant a verdict of guilty if the jury saw fit to return one. The court also held that it would be possible for Senator Truman H. Newberry to be convicted or acquitted without necessitating a similar outcome of the cases of the other men.

Letter Evidence Is Barred.

At the outset the defense called George E. Miller, editor in chief of the Detroit News, but failed to get before the jury a series of letters exchanged by Mr. Miller and Senator Newberry in the early months of 1918. Judge Sessions held that the letters were "beside the issue" and that the good faith of the candidacy was not in question.

George S. Ladd of Sturbridge, Mass., was the first defendant to take the stand. His cross-examination was the occasion of a bitter exchange with Assistant Attorney General Dailey as to his testimony before the grand jury.

On direct examination Ladd said he had held office in the Massachusetts state grange for twenty-five years up to last December and came to Michigan early in August of 1918 to take the stump for Newberry.

Ladd said he never solicited any campaign funds nor asked whence the money for his expenses came. He denied having any criminal intent.

The cross-examination at once jumped to his grand jury testimony. The witness "did not think" he told that body that he had been informed by Paul King, Newberry campaign manager, or E. V. Chilson, head of the speakers' bureau, that his work would be more effective if he did not let it be known that he was working for Newberry.

Asked Regarding Money.

Asked if he did not get $450 in a single payment and if Frank Blair, treasurer of the Newberry committee, had not furnished Chilson with that amount of cash, Ladd replied with an emphatic negative. Dailey read from the Blair report filed at Lansing this item:

"To reimburse E. V. Chilson for money advanced to George S. Ladd, $450."

FIVE SOCIALISTS IN ALBANY TRIAL CALLED TRAITORS

Charges Proved, Says Prosecutor.

Albany, N. Y., March 4.—Expulsion of the five suspended Socialist members of the New York assembly, who have been under investigation by the judiciary committee, on the ground that they are "traitors" was demanded by Martin Conboy, summing up the case against the legislators, today. Mr. Conboy insisted that the charges against the five men have been proved.

That the Socialist party "is composed of perpetual traitors," that its members, sworn to uphold its policies, must take the oath of office in the legislature "with a lie on their lips and in their hearts," and that the party "is trying to bring about a revolution in this country," were among charges made by Mr. Conboy.

Cites "Threat" of Hillquit.

Mr. Conboy directed the committee's attention to remarks by Morris Hillquit in summing up for the defense yesterday, which Mr. Conboy denounced "as one of the most complete, frank, unblushing threats of the use of industrial mass action."

"Under the veil of a smile a threat was employed that if you gentlemen conclude that these five Socialist assemblymen should not sit in this chamber as members of this assembly, a general strike might be called," Mr. Conboy declared.

"In League with Radicals."

Mr. Conboy quoted from the Socialist constitution to bear out his statement that "these five assemblymen present themselves at the door of this chamber not as representatives of the thousands of voters who cast their ballots for their election, but as proxies for a small group of dues-paying members, in no case exceeding 600, in number, many of whom are aliens, some of whom are minors, all of whom are disloyal."

STOP STREET FIRE BY CARRYING GAS AWAY IN BAGS

The pillar of fire, fed by gas from a leaking main, which had been blazing from a manhole in front of 3700 Cottage Grove avenue since midnight on Wednesday, was extinguished at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Electric current, which had been turned off for fear that the intense heat from the burning gas would destroy the insulation and melt the wires, was turned on again at 5:15 o'clock.

The supply was not shut off from the main at Thirty-seventh street, as many residents in that vicinity are dependent on gas to cook their meals. The problem was solved by drilling holes in the main near the manhole and leading the gas off in rubber bags, which were tied with strings after they were filled.

A Feast for Fasters

For a real feast, try Macaroni and Oysters—or prepare it with Mushrooms or Tomatoes. Each and every member of the family will find Macaroni thus daintily served a treat to tempt the most capricious taste or to whet a dulled appetite.

Macaroni is more nutritious than Bread, Meat or Potatoes. A single pound package of Macaroni contains more energy-making, strength-building units than two pounds of Beef.

Appetizing, Substantial Lenten Dishes

Macaroni can be served in a hundred tasteful ways, ranging from very simple combinations easily prepared to the most elaborately garnished epicurean delights.

Here are recipes for two Lenten dishes that will prove a welcome suggestion to the housewife who wishes to give variety to her daily menus.

Directions for Boiling

Use two quarts water, two teaspoons salt, one package of Macaroni. Let water come to boiling point—add Macaroni and boil vigorously 12 or 15 minutes—until tender. Macaroni must always be boiled as directed before use in any combination.

Macaroni and Oysters

One package Macaroni, ½ pint Oysters, 1½ cups spiced tomato sauce, 1 teaspoon butter. Line buttered ramekins with Macaroni, fill in with spiced tomato sauce, to which Oysters have been added. Put ramekins in pan of hot water—bake in moderate oven 30 minutes.

Tomatoes with Macaroni

One package Macaroni, 2 cans of canned Tomatoes (or 5 medium sized fresh tomatoes skinned), ½ teaspoon salt, pepper to taste, ½ cup soup stock. Cut Tomatoes fine, add soup stock, salt, pepper and Macaroni. Let come to a boiling point and simmer 10 minutes.

Always Buy Macaroni in Packages

A sealed package is dirt-proof, moisture-proof, sanitary. It assures you absolutely clean food, uncontaminated by flies or bugs. The package bears the maker's name. You know who is preparing the food for your table and where it comes from. The maker is bound to protect his reputation and will put into his packages the very best that can be produced.

ities police officials say crime has recently diminished. Jails, they say, now are becoming tenantless.

"These seem to be some of the economic and social benefits of prohibition so far recorded.

"Much has been said of the expense of enforcing prohibition. Prohibition enforcement in January cost $37,000 in this district, including Virginia, North and South Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky. In the same month, taxes, fines, and penalties imposed for violation of the prohibition laws totaled more than $100,000. In view of this the cost of enforcement for the country as a whole may be largely offset by fines and penalties and taxes on contraband liquors."

New Jersey Starts Fight.

While the "wets" of the house were making their fight, Attorney General Thomas F. McCran of New Jersey filed suit in behalf of his state in the Supreme court as to declare the amendment unconstitutional and to prevent federal officials from enforcing it.

The court, on the motion of Assistant Attorney General Frierson, fixed Monday for hearing arguments in the original suit filed by Rhode Island and on the appeals from Kentucky and Massachusetts decisions involving validity of the amendment.

Attorney General McCran contended the amendment was not properly drawn, and that congress possessed no power to propose a costitutional amendment regulating the habits and morals of the people. The enforcement act, passed under authority of the amendment, his bill set forth, was therefore null.

Albany, N. Y., March 4.—Minority Leader James J. Walker today introduced in the senate a bill to provide for the manufacture and the sale in restaurants and hotel dining rooms of beer and wine containing not more than 2.75 per cent of alcohol by weight.

RED LIQUOR RAIDS ON DAVY JONES' LOCKER IF UNCLE SAM WINKS

New York, March 4.—Ship salvagers left tonight for Washington to learn what would be the fate of "red liquor" raised from Davy Jones' locker and brought into American ports.

The wreckers declared they were ready to begin operations at once off the Atlantic coast if the liquor which went down with the "treasure ships" could be brought into an American port and then transferred to another vessel sailing for foreign parts. If transfer was not permitted, they were willing to have the "wet goods" go into dry dock with the damaged vessels until they could put out to sea again.

The liquor laden ships they propose to salvage, the wreckers declare, sank more than eighteen months ago. Their location was kept secret.

Cardinal Gibbons Out for Light Wines and Beer

Baltimore, Md., March 4.—[Special.]—Repeating this warning that the dry laws are a menace and that they are causing unrest in the country, Cardinal Gibbons, now in New Orleans, is quoted in a dispatch received tonight as saying that prohibition should be more liberal. He said congress should place a liberal interpretation on the question of what constitutes an intoxicating beverage and allow the sale of beer and light wines.

NATIONWIDE BAND OF BOND THIEVES GET $12,000,000

New York, March 4.—[Special.]—Approximately $12,000,000 worth of securities have been stolen from brokerage houses in this and other cities in the last year, according to statistics received by Assistant District Attorney Dooling during the last few days.

The reports, he said, indicate that organized bands of criminals have perfected arrangements for the theft and disposal of securities through representatives in nearly every large city in the United States.

Mr. Dooling said the thefts in New York in the last few days amounted to $200,000.

THREE GUILTY IN ARMY SALE GRAFT

Detroit, Mich., March 4.—Three of the six defendants—Grant Hugh Browne of New York and Soterious Nicholson and Lester Waterbury, two former army officers—were found guilty of conspiracy to defraud the government in the purchase of army salvage by a jury in federal district court here tonight.

The three were convicted on both counts of the indictment, the first of which charged conspiracy to defraud the government and the second conspiracy to bribe a government official.

Clemency was recommended for Nicholson who, up to the time of his indictment, was a captain in the ordnance department. Waterbury was formerly a major in charge of the sale of army salvage in this district.

Those exonerated were Burt Harris, New York; Monroe H. Burdach, Albany, N. Y., and Fred C. Collin, Detroit.

JURY DUE TODAY TO SHOW STATUS OF RENT BATTLE

Woman Resists Ouster to Test Position.

Possibility of the first court test of public opinion since the start of the anti-rent profiteering campaign was seen in a case scheduled to go to a jury in Judge Heap's court today.

It is an eviction proceeding started by Miss Olga Ruthenberg, owner of a house at 941 Belmont avenue, against the occupant, Mrs. Ida S. Hyden.

MRS. IDA S. HYDEN. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Through her attorney, T. G. Vance, Mrs. Hyden announced that she was willing to stand the expense of the test suit. Attorney Vance declared last night that Mrs. Hyden had rented the house in October for $100 a month.

The owner delayed sending a lease and finally, he says, mailed one which described an apartment and therefore was void. Mrs. Hyden sent it back, asking for a proper contract. After some delay, she was asked to move, according to Vance, and the ouster suit was commenced.

"I don't think any jury will put this woman out," said Vance last night. "Her husband, Peter N. Hyden, is an invalid. The only reason for ousting them is that the owner feels she can get more rent for the place."

Mayor Thompson took no action on the request of the council rent committee for revocation of the realty license of Hendricks & Luken, Fifty-fifth street and Prairie avenue, on complaints of tenants that they had given bonuses for new leases.

Claude W. Morris, real estate operator, announced to the newspapers that he was willing to give a site in a northwest side subdivision to the first six families who would agree to begin building an apartment house within sixty days.

ALDERMEN HALT FRANCIS' PLANS FOR $1,318,439

No street repairs paid for out of the vehicle tax fund will be made by contract with paving firms this year.

The city council finance committee, at work on the distribution of the $1,318,439 vehicle tax proceeds last night, refused to approve Commissioner of Public Works Francis' plan that the decision as to whether repairs shall be made by contract or by the city with day labor, be left to the street department.

"We had enough of that in the paving of Wabash avenue from Twelfth to Twenty-second street," said Ald. A. J. Fisher. "The city refused to accept the work and now the whole case involving $132,000 is in court."

Other members argued that since the city has a half million dollars invested in the municipal asphalt plant, it would be unbusinesslike to authorize contract repairs.

ILLINOIS ROADS BILL NOT LARGE BY COMPARISON

Springfield, Ill., March 4.—[Special.]—The Illinois highway department should ascertain what other states are paying this year for road construction. Are other states balking at the high prices asked or are they intending to award contracts at present prices? If not, what is to be the policy in Illinois? The state department has obtained data showing that Illinois obtained concrete roads last year at a smaller cost per mile than a number of other states.

The average price in Illinois was given by State Highway Superintendent Bradt today as $31,997. The average in Texas last year was $37,393 per mile of concrete highways, according to the department's information. In Indiana it was $35,120; in Kansas, $42,886; in New York, $33,286; in Pennsylvania, $44,000; in Delaware, $40,310; in Maryland, $33,735; Rhode Island, $38,500; and Tennessee, $32,250.

Only six states obtained a lower average price than Illinois, according to the incomplete information received.

Illinois built 165 miles of permanent roads. Only one other state constructed a larger amount.

While the doctor was a first lieutenant in the navy "Bots" was a yeowoman, and a degree of intimacy sprang up between the two, which led to several acts of misconduct, according to Mrs. Klaus.

U. S. HAS SHIPS; CAN'T GET FUEL; PRICE DOUBLED

Washington, D. C., March 4.—Failure of the shipping board to get bids for even a small proportion of the oil fuel needed for its ships during the year beginning April 1 brought the suggestion tonight that President Wilson might be urged to invoke his war powers to meet the situation. Restoration of full federal control over the oil industry might be necessary, it was said.

Oil men today said that much of the trouble could be definitely traced to unsettled conditions in the Tampico, Mexico, oil fields, the principal sources of supply. Recent Mexican decrees restricting oil operators have forced the companies to exercise extreme caution in contracting for future supply.

But "market conditions" was the chief explanation given. Several companies declared their production for the year was already covered by contracts, in one case with shipping firms operating federal owned bottoms.

On proposals for 24,000,000 barrels the shipping board received today bids on 1,500,000 at prices ranging from 76 to 90 per cent higher than last year. Existing contracts will expire within the next three weeks and at no point has the board a reserve supply for more than a few days.

...and at three historic banquets

A fact:

Within a single week last fall, great civic dinners were tendered at the Waldorf-Astoria to General Pershing, to Herbert Hoover and to Cardinal Mercier. And at all three of these famous banquets, the only cigarette served by the hosts was Fatima.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

FATIMA
A Sensible Cigarette

"Just Enough Turkish"

Facts like these make Fatima's place among cigarettes unique. A few years ago, the "proper" thing on such state occasions would have been an expensive, fancy-boxed, straight Turkish cigarette.

Today, things are different.

Men base their choice on taste rather than price. That Fatima should be so clearly the choice of men who can afford anything they like, shows that most smokers really prefer—not too much Turkish tobacco in their cigarettes nor too little—but "just enough Turkish."

in all its completeness and entirety as one unit the going business and new manufacturing plant—an exceptional plant in one building 300 x 150 ft., on one floor, under one fifteen section saw-tooth roof—of the Fulton Motor Truck Company at Farmingdale, Long Island, on the main line (double track) of the Long Island Railroad of the Pennsylvania Railroad System—thirty-two miles by railroad or concrete paved highway to the very heart of New York City, and thirty miles by railroad or concrete paved highway to the very heart of Brooklyn, and of Long Island City. Unusually low overhead charges; unusual labor conditions; yearly labor turn-over is very small; unusually low cost of living; unusual organization; a good stock-in-trade; in the midst of a rapidly growing population with a wide diversity of industries. The Fulton Truck has successfully met all competition. A thorough and painstaking examination of this plant as a manufacturing property must convince the most skeptical of the genuine possibilities of success here. The property and business are set forth in great detail in an illustrated and descriptive catalogue—by picture and plan and word—which may be had upon application from the office of the Auctioneers, where all inquiries must be made. The business was originated and the buildings completed and the equipment installed and put in operation between September, 1916, and November, 1918—and nineteen hundred and seventy-seven Fulton trucks are in actual use and doing good service today. The sale, which is an uncommonly attractive offering, will take place upon the premises herein named regardless of any condition of the weather on Thursday, the 11th day of March, 1920, beginning promptly at half past twelve o'clock noon.

DEMPSEY CALLS WILLARD FIGHT HARDEST BATTLE

CHAP. XX.—CHAMPION TALKS ABOUT WILLARD FIGHT.

Tribune Decisions

Decisions of Tribune fight representatives are:

At Boston—Joe Lynch knocked out Eddie Semal [3].

At Philadelphia—Joe Nelson beat Frankie Howell [6].

At Hot Springs, Ark.—Knockout Brown beat Zulu Kid [10].

BY EYE WITNESS.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 4.—In the course of a talk with Jack Dempsey the conversation drifted on to prize fighting, and I asked the champion which was the most scientific fight he ever had fought.

"Willard," he replied. "And the toughest?" Again the word, "Willard," was the reply, and he added, "Willard was dangerous all the way through, absolutely."

If the champion has a favorite fighter it is Corbett, but only because he likes him personally, as he never saw him fight. It is a surprising thing that the greatest fighter in a generation never saw any of the great fighters in action—never saw a battle for the heavyweight championship, except when he fought one last July.

Reads of Big Fights.

"I never saw any big fight," he said. "Only read about 'em a lot."

"He was too young," said Kearns.

What he meant was that most of his life Jack was too poor, hence his style is all his own, though fashioned in two important particulars, which I will describe in the next chapter, by Kearns, himself a fighter, who put in many an hour with him in '17 and '18. But the doctor had the grace to say:

"His style was developed by himself and he is the first champion in the world to ever show such action for a heavyweight. Dempsey is rated today as fast as a bantamweight. At first he may have wanted to model himself on Jeffries. What he heard about him made him enthusiastic about him. But now Jack fights like a panther—here, there, and everywhere."

Pries "Info" Out of Jack.

You must understand, reader, that all these details Dempsey himself gave us, had to be pried out of him. A notable who liked less to talk about himself or sit by and hear himself talked about, I never encountered, and when Kearns held forth in his presence concerning him, he would endure it as long as he could and then say, "Excuse me, I'll be back in a minute," and swing off to the drawing room or upstairs. Then we'd have to shout to him when we wanted his answer to a question.

As to his (Dempsey's) plans for the future it seems that the lure of New York has caught him and his permanent headquarters probably will be there.

"You can do more business there," he said.

It is certain he will not make his home in Los Angeles. "This all the year around heat gets me," he said. "I was born in Colorado, you know, and I got used to that cold weather."

Kearns Talks of Champ's Future.

Concerning Dempsey's professional future Kearns did most of the talking. "Jack Dempsey won his title in America and he's going to defend it in America," said the doctor, adding, "As to purses and guarantees, we haven't asked any but have received them from probably fifty promoters. My reply so far has been, 'Thank you. Send me full details.'"

Kearns doesn't agree with Dempsey that the days of big purses are over. "No," he said, "I think they'll be bigger."

It was after the Willard fight, says Hardy Downing, that Dempsey said to him that he figured the days of the big purse were over, and Jack added, "I can remember when $500 looked like all the money in the world to me."

Hardy said, "Yes, and even $5."

"Yes," said Jack, and Hardy said "and that two dollars and a half I gave you in 1914 has grown into something pretty good."

"It sure has," was the champion's reply.

Carpentier Only Contender.

As to possible contenders, nobody sees one except Carpentier, and Kearns said, "Martin got whipped the other night by a boob fighter, so he's eliminated anyway, and I won't let Jack fight a colored man, for then he'd have to fight 'em all."

Apropos of a half surly, half jocular remark Dempsey made to me the other day, somebody asked, "Is it true, Jack, that you're going to give 'em the championship?"

"They don't give a championship away, they fight for it," he replied.

Rice started well and had Collins trailing by a fairly good margin up to the tenth inning. From this point Collins steadily forged ahead. The match was devoid of brilliant playing and little enthusiam was aroused. Score:

Palmer's high run was 6, while Reiselt annexed one of 4. By his victory tonight Palmer is now tied with Clarence Jackson, Detroit, for the championship.

CARPENTIER AIMS TO BATTLE DEMPSEY AND THEN QUIT THE RING

PARIS, March 4.—Georges Carpentier will fight Jack Dempsey for the championship of the world or no one in the United States.

"I will accept absolutely no fight or exhibition contest in the United States except with Dempsey, and it will be my last fight," the French champion said today.

Carpentier, who is to marry, will spend his honeymoon in the United States. His bride to be, Mlle. Georgette Elasser, was born in New York, where her mother was an operatic singer. She came to France when a child, following her mother's death.

WILDE-HERMAN BOUT IN LONDON, COCHRAN'S PLAN

Philadelphia, Pa., March 4.—[Special.]—A battle between Jimmy Wilde and Bantam Champion Pete Herman may take place in London in May or June. C. B. Cochran, the English promoter, is angling for the match, and if he can get Wilde to agree to allow Herman to enter the ring at 118 pounds ringside, the contest probably will go through. Wilde is holding out for 116 pounds ringside. Herman, however, absolutely refuses to make that figure.

Eddie McGoorty Beaten by Goddard in Round 13

LONDON, March 4.—Eddie McGoorty, American light heavyweight, was defeated tonight in the thirteenth round of a bout held in Holborn stadium by Frank Goddard, an English heavyweight boxer.

A special train will be run.

GANDIL VISITOR AT CUBS' CAMP; REFUSES TO SIGN

Sox Star Gives Reasons for Being Holdout.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Pasadena, Cal., March 4.—The Cubs christened their new prep field with fore and afternoon drills today, under weather conditions hard to beat, on a playing surface sufficient unto its purposes, although the freshly laid diamond is more beautiful than practical on account of its puerile softness.

It will need a year to acquire the firmness and elasticity of a major league diamond and by that time the Cubs will have the de luxe conditioning camp of the country.

A feature of the day was a visit from Chick Gandil, the White Sox holdout, who motored over from his domicile in Los Angeles to fan with the Mitchell tribe.

Hollocher Has Bum Hand.

Gandil may take Charley Hollocher in charge and introduce him to the bone experts who removed a growth from Chick's left hand with marked success during the winter. Hollocher was troubled the latter part of last season with a bone bruise on his left hand which made it painful to catch a ball or grip a bat.

Apparently the thing disappeared during the winter, but was in evidence yesterday and Hollocher underwent an X-ray examination this morning which is expected to diagnose the ailment. If the plate shows a growth or a splinter of bone Hollocher can have it removed with the loss of only ten days' or two weeks' work, according to Gandil.

Chick's Hand Operated On.

Chick had a splinter cut out of the heel of his left hand a couple of months ago. Four sitches closed the wound, which healed in ten days. He promised to drive over again tomorrow and take the Cubs' shortstopper in tow if Manager Mitchell thinks it advisable.

Gandil frankly gave his reason for not signing a new contract with the White Sox. They are threefold. He declares there still is a difference of a thousand iron men between his own and Comiskey's ideas concerning the salary he ought to have.

Afraid of High Rents Here.

Another reason is he can make as much managing the St. Anthony team of the Idaho outlaw league as he could save in a season in Chicago at the salary offered him to return, and still a third consideration which might be placed first—is that Mrs. Gandil absolutely refuses to go back to Chicago and face the almost hopeless task of finding a place for her chicks—Senior and Junior, to live in next summer. The rent profiteering in Chicago has been read about by all the players and is causing considerable loss of sleep already.

The Cub squad will be increased by at least one tomorrow as Dave Robertson is expected to arrive from the Virginia homestead in time for work. Speed Martin's arrival has not been announced by him, but Mitchell is not worrying as Martin has been doing some work on the ball field most of the winter. Joel Newkirk's reputed holdout proved to be a slight exaggeration. He brought his signed contract along with him to save postage and handed it to Secretary Seys. If Joel had not been in California already he probably would not have been brought here from the east.

Heinie Groh's Demands Can't Be Met, Says Garry

Cincinnati, O., March 4.—August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati club, today refused to meet the salary demand of Heinie Groh, third baseman. Groh announced he would not be on the Red train when it leaves for Florida tomorrow. "Groh was ready to sign at his own terms yesterday, but made new demands which we could not accept," said Herrmann today. "I would rather spend $25,000 than meet the latest demand."

Bruno Haas of Sox Is Purchased by St. Paul

St. Paul, Minn., March 4.—Manager Mike Kelly of the St. Paul baseball club today announced the purchase of Outfielder Bruno Haas from the Chicago White Sox. Haas formerly played with Milwaukee.

Georgetown Athletes at Urbana for Meet

Urbana, Ill., March 4.—[Special.]—Georgetown university, from Washington, D. C., is the first squad on the scene for the western relay carnival Saturday night. The easterners brought six men, including Capt. Bob Legendre, pentathlon champion, and Jimmy Connolly, miler. They will compete in the medley relay. Legendre will enter the high hurdlers and run the half mile in the relay. Missouri headed by Jack Scholz will comprise eight men and will arrive tomorrow morning.

THE GUMPS—ANDY IN THE NEB CLASS

Woods and Waters by LARRY ST. JOHN

BIRD NOTES.

THE annual migration of birds is on. Some of the more adventurous ones have reached the latitude of Chicago, while others are working northward by easy stages. The more hardy water fowl left the sunny south some four weeks ago; readers of THE TRIBUNE in the south reported their departure to us, and other readers farther north kept us posted on their arrival, so that we were enabled to trace their migration from the gulf to within seventy-five miles of Chicago. Wherever the ducks went there were readers of the W. G. N. to tell us about it—something for advertisers to think about.

* *

A great many birds save their energy and do not go all the way to the sunny south, but stay well within the snow limit. For instance, Miss Mary S. Andrews of Farina, Ill., reports that meadow larks, song sparrows, juncos, and flickers remained in that vicinity all winter. These adventurous birds will be the first ones to come farther north and you may see some of them any day now. I have heard fox sparrows and song sparrows singing in early March.

* *

A boy, whether he lives in city, town, or country, cannot put in his spare time any better right now than to build some birdhouses. The work itself is interesting, to say nothing of the pleasure and satisfaction of watching the birds move in and raise their families. Trees and other nesting places are not as plentiful as they used to be and there is a scarcity of flats for birds, just as there is for people. Any boy who builds a birdhouse is doing something for his country.

* *

I hope that the boys in Cook county are getting busy on birdhouses for the exhibit to be held in Chicago on the last three days in March and the first three in April. A boy who wants plans for good birdhouses can get them from the superintendent of documents, Washington, D. C. Ask for "Birdhouses and How to Build Them," Farmers' Bulletin 609, and inclose 5 cents in coin, not stamps.

In the Wake of the News

TIMES HAVE CHANGED.

In days B. C.
A family
Cared not for nifty raiment,
Nor did they fuss
Or care a cuss
About excessive payment.

For when the kid-
Dies needed mid-
Dy shirts up to the minute,
The father would—

If feeling good—
Behead a bear and skin it.

And when mila-

Close to decadence hovered,
She skillfully
Undressed a tree
To keep her body covered.

But in this year
Of kickless beer
Lord help the one that tries it—
We must confess
That modern dress
Denudes the one that buys it.

Dates Are Announced for Playground Mat Tourney

Announcement was made yesterday by H. J. Fischer, who has charge of municipal playground athletic activities, that the preliminaries of the annual wrestling tourney will be held March 13 and the finals March 30. Competition is confined to regular attendants at the grounds, and prizes will be given the winners of the first three places. The team scoring most points will be given a trophy.

AUSTIN LIGHTS ENTER CITY LEAGUE FINALS, WINNING EVERY GAME

Austin lightweights rang down the curtain on the west section of the Chicago High School league by capturing their sixth league victory and sixteenth win in a row, Harrison being the victim, 40 to 7, on its own floor. Capt. Karstens was too slippery for Harrison's efforts at guarding, and got away to pop eleven baskets through the hoops. Hoffman backed him with six. The game put Austin in the city-wide semi-finals.

Marshall lights qualified for the other west section semi-final place by beating Crane, 13 to 10, at Crane. Combination work on the floor and Horwich's free throwing produced the victory. Lineups:

U. S., BRITAIN, AND AFRICA IN DAVIS CUP PLAY

SYDNEY, N. S. W., March 4.—The time limit for challenges for the Davis cup, the chief lawn tennis trophy of the world, has ended. The United States, Great Britain, and South Africa will be the only competitors for the cup, which now is held by Australasia.

A dispatch from London Feb. 26 said Holland also had challenged for the Davis cup. The announcement was made by the British Lawn Tennis association. The challenge of the United States Lawn Tennis association was accepted in a cablegram received from Thomas H. Hicks of Sydney, secretary of the Australian association, Feb. 26.

CATHOLIC LEAGUE.

St. Philip and St. Cyril high schools of the Catholic league broke even in the closing double header of the league at Marshall High gym. St. Philip taking the lightweight clash, 23 to 4, and St. Cyril the bantam, 27 to 2. Capt. Kasbohm of St. Philip led his team to victory with six baskets and one free throw. St. Cyril bantics clinched the league flag without a defeat, totaling 208 points to their combined opponents' 38 in eight games. They will challenge the city public high school bantam winner.

NEW LONDON FIVE IN SEMI-FINALS OF BASKET TOURNEY

Evanston 'Y' and Seward Blues Left in Play.

The Edison quintet of New London, Wis., pushed its way into the semi-finals of the Central A. A. U. basketball tourney at the Broadway armory last night by trimming Belvidere Union club, 26 to 16, in a hot third round tilt. In the second round, earlier in the evening, the Edison five expeditiously eliminated Illinois A. C., 33 to 23.

New London beat a worthy foe in Belvidere, which had worked into the third round by defeating American Legion post 58 of Ishpeming, Mich., 43 to 28. The New London team displayed a compact attack in which all five players took part, the guards playing their part well. Wahl was the stellar performer for New London against Belvidere, caging seven ringers. The steady work of Steffes, who continually outjumped his opponent at center, was another chief factor.

Seward Blues Trim C. H. I.

The Chicago Hebrew institute five trimmed Sterling "Y," 30 to 27, in a second round game, only to lose to Seward Park Blues, 45 to 28. The Seward team is the last Chicago outfit left in the running and faces a hard game this afternoon against Green Bay, Wis., in the semi-finals.

Evanston Y. M. C. A., composed of former Evanston High school players, will help uphold honors of the local district in remaining games. The Evanston boys will play New London in the first semi-final game at 3 o'clock this afternoon. They entered the semi-final round by eliminating Barry council, K. of C., 37 to 18.

Rogers Peet have told the story of their suits of *"Forefather's" Cloth many times—

But they never told how they reverted to the old practice of "dyeing in the wool" instead of "in the yarn," as is so common nowadays.

They wanted a faithful reproduction of ye cloth of ye olden tyme!

Allowing credit, of course, to modern methods, which naturally tend toward uniformity of texture impossible under old hand methods.

Suits of *"Forefather's Cloth." As original as they are attractive—and as attractive as they are exclusive.

Rogers Peet alone import the fabric. They alone manufacture the garments.

By Mae Tinée.

The large sized kick I would register in regard to this picture is that nobody takes Zazu Pitts in hand and dolls her up for the finale. Perhaps it's Zazu's fault. Perhaps the producers are to blame. Whoever is guilty ought to be spanked. For a heroine may be gauché and elemental until the handsome hero falls for her, but after that most of us demand that the magic of love shall work wonders. The only thing it does in the case of Miss Pitts is to change her dress for her.

Still harping on the subject of the lady, I know of nobody who can be funnier than she—or more pathetic. She's as ungainly as a young calf and as wistful as an Airedale pup. Not, said the critic hastily, that she looks like either. As "support" in a cast she's a wonder. Probably she'll be a wonder as a star when they learn to fix her up for the clinch.

As Betty Lawrence she has an awful time. She and her mother fall into the slimy clutches of a mysterious gentleman with a mysterious housekeeper (most sinisterly played by Maym Kelso) and a mysterious servant. After the death of the mother the villain still pursues the girl. But the handsome hero is there and with his aid the powers of evil are foiled and a happy Betty soon strolls loose-pointedly down garden walks with the handsome hero.

Speaking of the handsome hero: Henry Woodward is about tall enough and broad enough and wavy-haired enough and well mannered enough to stack up with the matinée idols. But Mr. Woodward needs a few lessons in makeup. During most of the picture his probably ruby lips register like a smear of jam.

"Looks like he'd been eating blueberry pie," remarked a man behind me.

All in all, though, I think you'll like "Seeing It Through." Improbable as the dickens, though!

A Friend in Need

Sally Joy Brown

I want to be the medium through which the friend in deed and the friend in need may be brought together. It may be you have some discarded article which has not outgrown its usefulness that will make some less fortunate one happy, and you would gladly give it if you knew how to go about it. Write to me and I shall be only too happy to be of service to you. Please write on one side of the paper.

When information is wanted by mail a stamped, addressed envelope should accompany the request. Please do not send parcels to The Tribune, but write for the address of the applicant and send direct.

Drawing Instruments Needed.

"I am a returned soldier and am taking a course in show card writing, but am unable to purchase such articles as a T square, triangles, a drawing board, and instruments. Perhaps some one has these tools, which have been discarded, and which would be useful to me. I would be glad to pay postage on these things. P. B."

Has not some one just the articles that would fill this need, and that could easily be spared in such a good cause?

An Extra Bathrobe.

"There may be some kind person who has an extra bath robe who isn't using it. I am at the municipal tuberculosis sanitarium and I haven't any money to buy one. I need one badly, as it is very hard to walk around here without one. E. F."

A bath robe would mean a lot of comfort for this patient. I hope to be asked for his address.

He Didn't Look It.

When down town shopping one bleak cold day in late autumn I approached a shivering man in a much worn, light, shabby coat and straw hat gazing in a shop window at men's clothing, and offered him a handful of change, which he refused. "I know I look the part," he said, and pulling some papers from his pocket showed me a bill for a shipment of cattle for several thousand dollars. He was a rich ranchman. C. D. S.

In the Cold, Gray Dawn.

One cold winter's night I took a girl friend home from a dance. She asked me to come in and get warm before starting home. I sat in a large easy chair near the fire, while she sat on the davenport. I was really embarrassed when I awoke at 5 o'clock in the morning to find the young woman asleep on the davenport—especially as I stole out of the door and saw a neighbor already up and shoveling snow.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special correspondence.]—Perhaps the designers themselves do not give the same flippant name to it, but I call it the cream-puff hip—that new way they have of drawing the skirt out around the top. It is becoming quite pervasive, and for those who are thin and chic enough it may prove quite persuasive.

For what it is worth, I submit this style carried out in blue and white pin checked taffeta trimmed with ruchings of self material and finished with collar of white organdy.

The lingerie touch on silk gowns of which I have spoken several times is not, by the way, confined to taffeta. Other silks—and even cloths—bask in net and organdy and lace. Ruchings of net are particularly affected, and one imported crêpe de chine in printed pattern adds ruchings of cream net to short sleeves, round neck, and even the skirt.

SHIPPING EGGS

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Hatching eggs may be shipped from coast to coast, almost any distance, and a reasonably high percentage will hatch if they are properly packed. Many poultrymen have developed an enormous business shipping eggs for incubation purposes. When shipping affects the hatchability of the eggs the trouble usually is directly traceable to the packing.

Hatching eggs must be packed so the germ will be disturbed as little as possible. By packing each egg separately in an old market basket they can be shipped long distances with little loss or injury.

The basket is first lined around the sides and bottom with a layer of excelsior about two inches thick. Wrap each egg in paper, and around this wrap an inch layer of excelsior. Use enough excelsior to make a ball at least three inches in diameter, keeping the egg as near the center as possible. The natural position of the egg is flat, so in placing them in the basket it is perhaps best to lay them on the side, instead of standing them on end. The balls should be packed tightly in the basket and covered with a two inch layer of excelsior. They may be kept in place by sewing a heavy cloth covering over the top.

The market basket also is used with stiff pasteboard cartons or paper boxes instead of wrapping each egg in paper and excelsior. The space in the compartment around each egg should be filled with bran. The carton is placed in a basket lined with excelsior. Pack excelsior around the ends; place a layer on top, and cover with strong cloth.

Eggs are often smeared when others are broken during shipment. In such cases they should be washed in warm water immediately after they are unpacked. Eggs that have been shipped should not be placed in the incubator within a day after they are received, to give the yolks time to settle into their normal position.

MISS B.: "VARIETY IS NOT ONLY the spice of life," says some clever person, "but it is a necessary ingredient." Monotony will stifle mental vigor—but why let monotony govern your life? But go on alone the road you are now traveling and you will be an old woman before you pass many milestones.

Tribune Cook Book

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Tamarind a Pleasing Drink.

Are you asking for the tamarind? We used to get it and it made a pleasanter drink to my mind than lemons, and perhaps was more medicinal, more of a spring tonic. One writer says of it:

"The acid of the fresh tamarind is pleasing, and is a combination of citric, malic, formic, butyric, and tartaric acids, the tartness being given chiefly by the citric. The laxative and cooling qualities make the tamarind considered of much value in many vases of illness and certainly in the prevention of it.

"Tamarinds are usually shipped from the East or West Indies in some form of preserve, though with a little more care, it is said, they might be had more abundantly in the market in fresh form, if the shell or pod were prevented from breaking, for with this natural protection they keep well for months. With the pods removed the tamarind may be preserved by pouring boiling sirup over the fruit or by placing in stone jars with alternate layers of sugar."

In an old and learned book on fruits it says: "The pulp in which the seeds of the tamarind are inclosed contains more acid than any other vegetable substance, in a natural state, with which we are acquainted, and therefore it is used both for sharpening food and drink and for medicinal purposes. Niebuhr says the tamarind is equally useful and agreeable. It has pulp of a vinous taste, of which a wholesome, refreshing liquor is prepared." Another quotation is in verse and tells how a damsel plucked the acid fruit of the tamarand tree, steeped it long in water, so that those who drank the cooling draught would not wish for wine.

Buddy stopped and, pointing to the empty sled, asked her with much concern, "Where did you lose your little boy?" L. A. C.

Harrieth and Rosalind were playing together nicely when suddenly Rosalind lost her temper and told Harrieth and the dolls exactly what she thought of them. Harrieth listened gravely until Rosalind was through and then said, "Mother, Rosalind must be an awful thoughter inside to say such things outside." E. T. P.

Henriette had been naughty and her mother got angry and said instead of punishing her she would just get a good little girl in place of her. Henriette stopped crying and started to laugh, saying: "You can't trade me." Her mother was surprised and asked her why. "Well," said Henriette, "no lady will trade you a good little girl to get a worser one." R. B. P.

NEWS OF Society

Casino Supper Party Tonight Will Light Dull Lenten Evening

The Lenten quiet is broken only by small informal parties and the social calendar is practically blank. The majority of folk who contribute to society's gayety are away and most of those still in the city are planning Easter vacations. Brightening today's dullness is a supper party to be given at the Casino by Vaughan C. Spalding of 10 East Schiller street. There will be about forty guests.

There will be an authors' tea this afternoon at the College club under auspices of the library committee. The hostesses will be Mrs. William Vaughn Moody, Miss Elizabeth Wallace, Mrs. Herbert E. Bradley, Miss Mary Ross Potter and Mrs. Harry W. Armstrong. Among the guests will be Mrs. Arthur Aldis, Mrs. Florence Kiper Frank, Miss Harriet Monroe, Miss Edith Wyatt, Miss Julia Cooley, Robert Herrick, Llewyn Jones, James Weber Linn, Keith Preston, Burton Rascoe and Carl Sandberg.

Mrs. Joseph R. Winterbotham Jr. of 200 East Deleware place will leave next week to join Mr. Winterbotham in New York City, where they will reside. They may return to Chicago in the autumn, though at present they plan to remain in the east indefinitely.

Mrs. Samuel Insull of 1100 Lake Shore drive will return today from a brief visit in New York and Atlantic City.

Reuben Donnelley of 228 Lake Shore drive and his daughter, Miss Eleanor Donnelley, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Thorne Donnelley, are in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Kenly of 1511 Astor street have gone to New York, where they will be joined for a short stay by their daughter, Miss Rebecca McDoel Hickman, who has been in Hanover, N. H., attending the winter carnival.

Mrs. Philip Swift of 150 North State parkway will return Monday after several weeks' stay at Bon Air, Fla.

Mrs. Theodore A. Shaw Jr. of 1130 Lake Shore drive will return early in April from California, where she went Feb. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Fox of 20 East Goethe street will open their cottage in Wheaton about the middle of May.

Mrs. Philip Schuyler Doane of 1427 North State parkway has gone to Pasadena, Cal., to join her aunt and sister, Mrs. George M. Pullman and Miss Mercedes Stewart. Mrs. Doane will return April 1.

Miss Virgene Maltby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Maltby of Kenilworth, will return next week from a month's visit in Mobile and New Orleans.

Mrs. A. P. Shaver of 4417 Ellis avenue, Chicago chairman of the Belgian Babies fund, accompanied by Miss Alice Philip Dean, daughter of Senator Thomas A. Dean of Ohio, will leave Sunday for an extended trip through the south in interest of the fund. After conferring with Belgian organizations in Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston and Houston, Mrs. Shaver and Miss Dean will sail from New Orleans for Havana, returning by way of Key West and Jacksonville about May 1.

ART FOR ART'S SAKE OR GOLD?

Highbrows and "Moderns" Lock Horns at University of Chicago.

The Play's the Thing

With the decision of the Dramatic club at the University of Chicago to stage a present day melodrama, the highbrow and twentieth century factions on the campus have locked horns.

The highbrow element, represented by the president of the Poetry club, raises the question as to whether the Dramatic club should produce melodrama for cash or Shaw and Dunsany for art.

"The college students fall for the Mack Sennett stuff just as quickly as any other humans," declares Louis Dooley, director and stage manager, "and personally I feel that I would like to shift scenery with more of an incentive than empty seats, for a change."

Regardless of dissension in the ranks, "The Thirteenth Chair" is to be staged by the club tonight and tomorrow night at Mandel hall. In an effort to stimulate interest among the co-eds Colville C. (Red) Jackson, captain elect of the football team, has been induced to "star" in the cast. Miss Elizabeth Stone, daughter of Dr. John Timothy Stone, will have a leading part.

N. W. U. President Back.

After traveling 10,000 miles and addressing 12,000 persons, Dr. Lynn Harold Hough, president of Northwestern university, has returned from his swing around the west. President Hough's efforts among alumni resulted in the formation of local committees to seek contributions in the university's ten year drive for $25,000,000.

Prizes for "Dry" Orations.

One prize of $30 and another of $20 have been offered by the W. C. T. U. for the best oration on prohibition by an undergraduate in the college of liberal arts in Northwestern university.

Says It Cost $150,000 for Chicago's Opera Season in New York

BY W. L. HUBBARD.

Interesting and seemingly authoritative information concerning the outcome of the five weeks season in New York by the Chicago Opera company is published in the New York Review. According to this statement, the loss on the five weeks season there is "roughly estimated at about $150,000, although business done was excellent, the blizzard and all things considered."

The writer further figures that the deficit on the entire season (including the ten weeks in Chicago) of the company will amount to $300,000, and that in ten years the organization has sunk over $3,000,000. The comforting assurance is given, however, that these great losses do "not worry the principal backers and guarantors of the company" and that Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. McCormick have underwritten the organization for the next two years.

The rumors which latterly were persistent in Gotham that the Chicago and Metropolitan companies would coöperate and that several of the principals—Titta Ruffo, Rosa Raisa and Galli-Curci—would join the New York opera next season are settled thus: "It may be authoritatively stated that there is absolutely no truth in these reports."

The Metropolitan "officially denied" any negotiations were pending with the Chicago artists and "stated that their services were not desired at anything like the salaries paid by the Chicago Opera association." The paper declares that Manager Gatti Casazza "would like very much" to have a more conservative policy adopted by the Chicagoans so far as salaries are concerned, because "the whole business end of grand opera in this country is affected by paying salaries which seem all out of proportion to the value of the services rendered."

It is pointed out that "with the Chicago company paying Titta Ruffo $2,500 a performance, while the combined weekly salaries of all the leading baritones at the Metropolitan—Amato, Scotti, De Luca and Whitehill—do not total that amount, the grand opera wage scale is, to say the least, seriously menaced."

Another singer to whose salary exception is taken is Schipa, the tenor, who receives "$1,500 a week, whereas his weekly stipend on the other side was about $300." It is also pointed out that the Chicago managers engage many artists and pay them liberal salaries and cannot use them regularly because of the unnecessary number of them on the roster.

The expenses at the Lexington Opera house, where the Chicago company appeared, were figured at close on $90,000 a week, and it was pointed out that if capacity audiences attended every performance the receipts could be only $70,000. The attendance was cut down, by storm and by some unattractive bills, only the performance with Ruffo, Galli-Curci, and Garden being given before sold out houses. Thus there was a loss of approximately $30,000 on each of the five weeks.

EFFICIENCY MEN TO STUDY NEEDS OF OUR FARMERS

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

The American Farm Bureau federation, representing 1,600,000 farmers of twenty-eight states, outlined a program of activities at yesterday's meeting in the Hotel La Salle.

An executive committee of twelve men started for Washington last night on a special train to seek the coöperation of various governmental departments. J. R. Howard, president of the federal body, led the committee.

The executive committee will employ trained experts to help carry on the work. It is expected the main headquarters will be located here. The president's salary was fixed at $15,000 a year.

Study Transportation Problems.

Various bureaus or divisions will be created to look after farmers' interests and to carry on investigations. Transportation problems of both rail and water will be studied. A thorough investigation of the distribution of farm products will be made, and a bureau of statistics formed to inquire into world conditions influencing supply and demand.

Rap "Farmers' Council."

There has been some misunderstanding as to just what organization represents the farmers of America and the national bureau offers this note:

"We wish the American people to understand definitely that the organization self-styled 'The Farmers' National Council,' has no authority to speak in behalf of the farmers in this country. Any and all efforts on the part of 'The Farmers' National Council' to ally the agriculturalists of America with the radicals in the industrial world, is hereby denounced."

OUIJA SENDS 4 WOMEN TO STATE INSANE HOSPITAL

Martinez, Cal., March 4.—Following their arrest as insane suspects because of a twenty-four hour séance with ouija boards four women were committed to state hospitals for the insane by the Superior court here today.

The women were in a group of seven men and women arrested at El Cerrito after neighbors had complained to the city marshal.

The three men testified that at first they had tried to induce the women to cease the ouija séances, but admitted that the last séance in which they had participated had lasted for twenty-four hours.

The evidence showed that more than $200 in currency on which the number 7 appeared had been burned by the party and that one of the women had been stripped of most of her clothing.

CON CON TO HEAR CITY, COUNTY MERGER PLANS

Springfield, Ill., March 4.—[Special.]—All factions of the sanitary district board of Chicago are expected to appear in that city tomorrow before the constitutional convention committee on Chicago and Cook county to urge the district's absorption by a combined city and county government. Mayor Thompson will be asked to attend to present his promised "important matters" for the constitution.

The committee on revenue practically agreed this afternoon to exempt from taxation endowment funds of purely charitable institutions. Income producing property used exclusively for charity may get the same privilege.

Delegate Revell proposed that the convention shall require every candidate to take an oath of loyalty before his name appears on any ballot.

ALDERMEN VOTE TO RAISE LIMIT ON SKYSCRAPERS

Would Allow Height of 260 Instead of 200 Feet.

The city council buildings committee yesterday opened the way for another skyscraper era in Chicago by voting to raise the building height limit from 200 to 260 feet.

The committee acted unanimously after speeches by Jarvis Hunt and Ernest R. Graham, architects, and Simon O'Donnell, president of the Chicago Building Trades council.

Arguments for Higher Buildings.

The arguments advanced by the proponents of the change were:

Higher buildings will tend to solve the office rent problem by providing more space.

Higher buildings mean higher taxation values and more taxes. Mr. Graham said the change will mean an increase of $100,000,000 in tax values in ten years.

The 200 foot limit, since its adoption in 1911, has curbed building activities, as promoters will not build 200 foot buildings, which cannot compete with the 260 foot buildings erected before 1911.

Bostrom Protests.

Only one voice was raised against the change. Building Commissioner Bostrom said that there is no objection to the 260 foot limit on such streets as Michigan avenue, State street, and Wabash avenue, but that buildings of that height on narrower streets will result in crowded sidewalks and insufficient light and air for downtown workers. He asked that no change be made until the zoning commission has turned in its report.

"With the exception of the State and Lake building, there have been no big loop buildings erected of late," said Mr. O'Donnell. "That is because it is the extra sixty feet that makes a profit for the builder." Mr. Graham took a similar view.

Aldermen Explain Change.

Ald. Powers and Ald. Frick, who were members of the committee when the height was limited to 200 feet in 1911, both said they had voted for that change in the hope that the loop would be "flattened out" and spread west of the river.

"The present ordinance has not done that, and we are willing to vote for a change," they said.

Should the council approve the change, it is probable that several proposed buildings will be twenty-one stories high. Among them are the North American Trust Company's building, the proposed Federal Reserve Bank building, and the Wrigley building, now being constructed.

WANTS COLLEGES TO TEACH PERIL OF CHEEK DANCES

Dr. John Sundwall, director of the students' health service at the University of Minnesota, advocated the frank discussion in classes at the universities of cheek to cheek dancing and its dangers at a conference of public health officials at the Auditorium hotel yesterday.

"The student should be made to realize the danger that lies in the caress," Dr. Sundwall said. "He might get a new light on cheek to cheek dancing."

Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the Rockefeller foundation, made a plea for standardization of public health activities. Dr. Charles V. Chapin, commissioner of health of Providence, R. I., and Dr. Allen McLaughlin, assistant surgeon general in the United States public health service, also spoke on standardization.

Other speakers were Dr. Haven Emerson of New York, Dr. W. S. Rankin of the North Carolina state board of health, and Dr. Charles V. Bolduan of the United States public health service.

The conference was called by the council on health and public instruction of the American Medical association. Dr. Victor C. Vaughan of Ann Arbor, Mich., presided.

French M. E. Edifice Sold to Negro Congregation

One of the last of the old guard of Protestant churches in the neighborhoods bordering on the south side "black belt," the French Evangelical Methodist Episcopal church at the southwest corner of Langley avenue and Thirty-seventh street, has been sold to a negro congregation. The St. Catherine's African M. E. Zion church has purchased it for $23,500.

Husband, 58, Proves Too Young for Wife of 35

Frank A. Ammerman, a retired physician, believes that one is as young as he feels, but Mrs. Anna Ammerman, who is 35, believes her 58 year old husband feels entirely too young. Her bill for divorce filed yesterday charges that Ammerman's age has been no deterrent to his clandestine relations with Dorothy Devoe, Ada Mae F., and Mrs. E., the latter two residing in Omaha.

Council Subcommittee Takes Up New Licenses

Imposition of license fees on bankers, drug stores, fruit dealers, candy manufacturers and wholesale meat dealers, as advocated by Ald. Anton J. Cermak, chairman of the subcommittee on increased license revenues, was discussed yesterday by the subcommittee composed of Ald. Lipps, Capitain, Woodhull, Schwartz and Clark.

MRS. FISKE IN A BIT OF MOONSHINE

BY PERCY HAMMOND.

THE sentimental happenings at Powers' are not so much a play as they are a showy little parade, arranged to display Mrs. Fiske in various ingratiating moods and emotions. Picturesque, spurious, often amusing, and rather uneventful, it moves along in fairly good order, justifying itself sufficiently as a larkish promenade for a favorite celebrity.

And what a fine time she has in its performance! If you like to see the most estimable of the actresses quietly revelling in the sheer joy of her art, visit Mrs. Fiske and "Mis' Nelly of N'Orleans." Daventry is her dashing patronymic in the play, and Daventry she is to the ultimate syllable. An adult madcap from whom the years have stolen none of the fire of her mind and little of the vigor of her heart, she is made to order for so bright, finished, and intelligent a comedienne as Mrs. Fiske.

You find her near the beginning, with cane and spectacles, in a remote and elusive New Orleans garden, where a generation before she had wrought romantically as a Louisiana belle. She has returned from years spent in Parisian exile as the result of a love affair, wrecked by a misunderstanding on the marriage morn; and her plan is to break the engagement of her niece to the son of her whilom hero.

Mis' Nelly in those dead days was a good deal of a hussy, as she describes herself. She was, and still is, addicted to a southern and congenial style of minor profanity, and she likes to say "damn" so well that she refers to her spinster's cap as "damure." She was a "tough bird," inspiring the duello among the passionate Creole swains, and now that she is back among the dim lights and the odor of jasmine in old St. Charles street, she renews herself like a classic.

So Mrs. Fiske sparkles and is serene in a lively episode wherein she doffs the dull livery of her assumed infirmities, puts on a gay ball dress and sets out to fascinate Hamilton Revelle as Georges Durand, the Creole parent. Also his son, Victor Benoit, who is mature in appearance, but adolescent in deportment. Her many charms and enchantments are felicitiously brought to bear upon her victims. The arch and twinkling eye, the bitten nether lip, the musical staccato and all the other semi-subtleties of Mrs. Fiske's method are operated in a captivating abandon.

MRS. FISKE.

She waves her fan, utters a few decorous audacities, and ere the scene is over the widower Durand is again in love, and his offspring endeavors to promote an elopement with the lady. It is carnival time, and the masquers, the garden lanterns and the distant music interfere not at all with the purple atmosphere.

Eventually, of course, Mis' Nelly arrives, with a pretty oath, in her lover's arms, and her niece reaches a similar destination. This knowing debutante is acted by Miss Dorothy Day, a new and to me an attractive personality, playing with understanding, but with a slight monotony of gesture. The comedy is by Laurence Eyre, who describes it as "moonshine, madness, and make-believe." But more than any of those things it is Mrs. Fiske.

TEACHER "FIRED" BECAUSE OF TALK ON PAY QUESTION

8 Others at Evanston Also Periled, Hint.

Miss Alma Hoyt of 1703 Chicago avenue, Evanston, a teacher in the suburb's district schools for the last eighteen years, in exercising the great American privilege of free speech during the recent teachers' campaign for higher pay, apparently talked too much. Last night when F. W. Nichols, superintendent of schools in district No. 75, sent in the list of teachers to be reappointed for 1920-1921, the name of Miss Hoyt was missing. This amounts to her dismissal, it is declared.

According to rumors, nine teachers who discussed the matter of a tax levy to raise additional funds for salary increases violated an order issued by the superintendent not to discuss this subject with any one but him.

Admits Omitting Several.

Supt. Nichols admitted that Miss Hoyt and "several" others had been left off his list of appointments.

"I did not include the name of Miss Hoyt," he said, "because of her attitude toward the school board and myself. It is true I left off the names of several others. In the case of Miss Hoyt it does not matter much, because I understand she is to go to Chicago soon."

This last statement was denied by Miss Hoyt. She said Supt. Nichols had written a letter notifying her that her name would not be submitted. As he wrote this letter himself, it could not be regarded as a part of the regular correspondence of his office and no copy of it could be filed, she said.

The Teacher's Story.

"It seems queer that after eighteen years of satisfactory service I should be practically dismissed in this way," said Miss Hoyt. "I exercised the right of free speech during the salary campaign by informing the school board during a discussion of the tax levy that it had made no provision for the raise in pay to become effective this year. The board then fixed up the matter.

"Without having a chance to place my side of the story before the board my name was omitted from the list. I will appeal to the board, because I am not the only one who has been 'fired' for talking."

For fifteen years she had taught at the Crandall school, but of late has been at the Noyes street school.

Raise Paid Here Today.

Checks totaling $1,750,000 were sent out yesterday to the teachers of the Chicago public schools. Today they will be paid for their services during February. It will be the first pay day under the new salary schedule. The pay roll was $350,000 more than the January pay roll. This will be the size of the monthly pay roll hereafter except for March, when the January increases will be added to the regular amounts.

BEG YOUR PARDON!

The death of Dr. Michael F. Murphy was reported. The name is Michael F. Murray.

U. S. to Convert 4 Planes Into Air Ambulances

Washington, D. C., March 4.—Four DH-4 army airplanes have been ordered converted into airplane hospital ambulances and A. V. Verville, aeronautical engineer at McCook field, Dayton, O., has completed a design for the model, the war department announced today. Each machine will be equipped with two basket litters for patients and accommodations for a pilot. The need of this type of plane, the department said, has been demonstrated by the Mexican border patrol work.

H. C. L. Tip: Eat Flowers; Prices Slashed in Two

SUIT FOR $10,000 HINTS BURT HAD A LITTLE PARTY

Girl Tells of Wet Evening and Fight in Her Home.

Armed to the teeth and hip pockets Bert F. Reiman stepped all over the well known eighteenth amendment, according to a declaration by Miss M. Hulett, 4222 South Michigan avenue, in a $10,000 damage suit filed yesterday against Reiman. He is an automobile man.

On Feb. 8, Miss Hulett states, Reiman obtained admittance to her apartment by posing as a messenger with a telegram to deliver. Opening the door, Miss Hulett says, she found Reiman, arms loaded with bottles of that rare stuff, whisky. He pushed his way in and proceeded to make himself at home with his forbidden cargo, she asserts, adding that endeavors to oust the intruder were unsuccessful.

Gets More Via Phone.

Reiman disposed of his treasure trove, Mrs. Hulett states, and when the plenteous supply had disappeared, he telephoned a friend, said to be connected with the Elgin Motor Sales company, and demanded a new shipment be brought to him immediately.

Amendment number eighteen was trod upon again when the dutiful friend appeared shortly with a fresh supply of liquid refreshment. The jubliant pair are accused of becoming drunk and disorderly, of being loud and boisterous for a long space of time, and of acting "against the dignity of the people of the sovereign state of Illinois."

Hurt in Fight, She Says.

The ultimate result of so much hard liquor was a free for all fight, according to the bill. Miss Hulett lost some hair, her dress, valued at $150, was torn to pieces, and she was "bruised and wounded" to such an extent that $500 had to be spent for the attentions of a physician.

So to offset damages to her health and to insure respect for the eighteenth amendment she brings her suit for $10,000.

ASK REFERENDUM ON $34,200,000 NEW CITY BONDS

The city council finance committee yesterday voted to place bond issue proposals aggregating $34,200,000 on the ballot at the election on April 13. It is probable the council will approve the plan. If it does the following expenditures will be up for public approval:

Lighting—$15,000,0000 to be spent at the rate of $3,000,000 a year for five years for a complete rehabilitation of the present system and the installation of 85,000 new 100 candle power street lamps.

Bridges—$9,200,000 for bridges on the following streets: One Hundredth, Fuller, Weed, Clark, La Salle, Carpenter, Polk, Van Buren, One Hundred and Sixth, and Crawford avenue.

Convention hall—$5,000,000 for a combination convention hall and memorial for soldiers, sailors, and marines.

Parks, playgrounds and bathing beaches—$5,000,000. No program of expenditure has been adopted.

SEVERAL HURT AS CAB HITS TRUCK; INQUIRY STARTED

Peter Thompson, head of the Thompson Teaming company at 103 South Jefferson street, and the night watchman at the company's barns probably will be questioned this morning by the Warren avenue police in regard to an automobile collision at Lake street and Sacramento boulevard last night, which resulted in the injury of several persons.

A truck belonging to the company, going west in Lake street, failed to slow down at the boulevard in compliance with traffic regulations, and was struck and overturned by a Yellow taxicab containing several passengers. Mike Foley of 3925 Colorado avenue, who was crossing the street, was struck by the truck and severely injured.

The occupants of the taxi were severely shaken up. One of them, Abe Brodsky of 4817 North Kedzie avenue, was cut by flying glass.

BAILIFF CLOSES SARATOGA HOTEL ON COURT ORDER

Show Folk Driven to Street as Result.

Twenty-eight years ago—the year before the World's fair—J. K. Sebree opened the Saratoga hotel. From those World's fair days until the sunny afternoons when Highball was jumping to victories at the Washington Park club course the hotel flourished. Fifteen years ago the decline set in.

Yesterday afternoon Deputy Bailiff T. J. Carroll of the Municipal court tacked up a notice in the lobby. It read:

"This property must be vacated within 24 hours." It bore the official seal of the court and the signature of Dennis J. Egan, bailiff.

Showmen Are Homeless.

Forty different rushes followed the proclamation. Fifty chorus girls dashed to their rooms to pack. A hundrew showmen—carnival, wild west, and tent—commenced a search for new quarters. Twenty good and faithful old timers hurried to the bar. Thirty soldiers of fortune—not the story book kind—sought out friends in the shadowed rooms. Two lawyers rushed back of the desk to take charge. Bellboys hurried to their rooms for their fur coats.

A hotel that had harbored the best and the worst of the "profession," the gambling kings, and the tiniest jockeys, was going to close within 24 hours.

Litigation Is Cause.

All because half a score of litigants had tied the affairs of the hotel up into such a knot that one had appealed to Bailiff Egan to take possession until an accounting could be had.

An old timer wandered in.

"Why Old Bill Cody, 'Buffalo Bill,' you know, wouldn't stop any place in Chicago except the Saratoga some years back," he said. "The Ringling boys stayed here. Old Jim Bateman out there in the bar has served drinks to every topnotch showman in the country. Ask Geers if he remembers the Saratoga. Ask any of 'em—Tod Sloan, old Fred Witte—any of 'em."

Car Killed Girl, Found Guilty of Manslaughter

John Kuchta was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in Judge Lewis' court yesterday. Agnes Sauter, 27 years old, was killed by an auto driven by Kuchta when he ran into five girls at Archer avenue and Robey street, Nov. 17, 1918. Assistant State's Attorney Daniel G. Ramsey said the penalty carried a sentence of from one year to life.

Evidence showed Kuchta had been to Lyons earlier in the day on a pleasure visit.

THE IKQUIRING REPORTER

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.

Will Mary Pickford's divorce injure her reputation as a moving picture actress?

The Answers.

MRS. CHRISTINA LASSEN, 4206 Berkeley avenue, a housewife—No. She will be the same actress as before. What we worship is her work on the screen, and it will not be affected by her divorce. She will be just as sweet as ever.

WILLIAM E. KELLER, 4239½ Broadway, a building contractor—Won't hurt her a bit. Most people form their opinions of an actress from what they see on the screen, and although some are narrow minded enough to be prejudiced by scandal, they are not numerous enough to hurt Mary's reputation.

JOHN KELLY, 853 Sacramento boulevard, a railroad superintendent—Mary always has protrayed a clean and innocent girl. Those rôles won her fame. There was nothing unclean in her divorce suit. No one could look as pure and innocent as Mary does unless they were that way down in their hearts. She'll be a bigger hit than ever.

MISS PEGGIE DAVIS, 2018 Calumet avenue, an actress—I knew Mary when I was in the movies. She's as clean and pure as any girl ever was. She always has had good rôles and her pictures usually leave a good taste. Her admirers won't be worried by the publicity and Mary doesn't care about those who don't love her. Movie fans always will call her the "sweetest girl in the world."

W. L. ENGEL, 5751 Normal avenue, a salesman—The publicity will do her good. It shows us that our Mary has a good, strong, American spirit. Divorces are so common nowadays that it won't hurt her a bit. Don't our children cry for her pictures? Well, that's enough. She's a "right" girl.

FEAR OF THEFT CHARGES DRIVES YOUTH TO SUICIDE

Fear of implication in a series of thefts running into thousands of dollars is said to have been the cause of the suicide of William Mealow, 19 years old, 1410 South Clinton street, Berwyn. Mealow yesterday shot himself through the heart.

According to Gen. James E. Stuart, chief postoffice inspector, Mealow was named by five men recently arrested on charges of stealing automobile parts from government garages. Mealow was employed in a postoffice garage at Curtis street and Washington boulevard.

Following the confession of the five men, Mealow was placed under surveillance, but was not arrested.

SURFACE LINES NEED $5,000,000, BLAIR DECLARES

Asks Cars, Extensions; Wants Fixed Fare.

An expert survey of the entire Chicago traction system, with a view of improving routes, running time, equipment, and general service conditions has been arranged by Henry A. Blair, president of the Chicago Surface lines, who returned yesterday from New York.

Mr. Blair also inquired of bankers the possibility of being able to sell them bonds with which to purchase new equipment and make extensions.

Roads Need $5,000,000.

"Before we can greatly improve the service," Mr. Blair said, "it will be necessary to have several hundred new cars and make extensions. There should be added, in the course of the year, probably 300 cars. However, these cars cost about $15,000 each, and the first 200 will require $3,000,000. We should have $1,500,000 additional for extension work. The companies really need at this time $5,000,000 of new capital.

"But this we cannot raise until permanent rates of fare have been fixed. When the bankers are asked to buy our bonds to furnish this money, they say in effect: 'You don't know where you're at. Wait until you know what your rates will be.'

Calls Politics Factor.

"I don't know when to expect a decision fixing the rates. It looks as though it would not be before the politics in the business has exhausted itself. The city has expended about $100,000 thus far.

"As to cars in service, we are using every one available during the rush hours. But of our total equipment of 3,100 cars it is not possible to use all. They are damaged by collisions, need new motors, armatures must be rewound, and from various causes about 10 per cent are in the barn for repairs.

"It is a misapprehension, therefore, to believe that cars found in the barns during rush hours could be put into service.

Names New Manager.

"I have obtained the services of John A. Beeler, an expert in traction matters, who will go over our system. He will not be connected with the management, but will make a study of routes, running time, and equipment, and suggest improvements.

"Williston Fish, now with the Buffalo street railroads, is due to reach Chicago next Monday and will be made general manager of the surface lines. I think good results may be predicted from this appointment. Mr. Edgerton whom I have appointed to succeed former Supt. Weatherwax, is working hard and I can see where he is obtaining results."

SIR OLIVER BARES SCIENCE'S TRAIL TO LIFE BEYOND

Hereafter Like the Earth, Even to Bodies.

BY THE REV. F. L. GRATIOT.

"How are the dead raised? and with what body do they come? . . . There is a natural body and there is a spiritual body."—St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians, xv., 35 and 44.

Will science, so long critical of religion and the Bible, be the means of bringing people back to them again?

Sir Oliver Lodge, one of the eminent scientists of the time, says it will.

In his lecture at Orchestra hall yesterday afternoon on "The Continuity of Existence" Sir Oliver justified from a scientific standpoint such disputed doctrines as those of inspiration, miracles, the resurrection of the body, and an intermediate state for the soul.

His lecture had to do especially with the scientific evidence of the survival of the personality after death.

Same Bodies After Death.

"Existence is continuous," said Sir Oliver. "Nature makes no sudden jumps. Those who have nearly died under an anesthetic tell us there is no break in sensation, but just a feeling of being apart from the body. Yet there is still a substantial body.

"Our body is our mode of expressing ourselves to the world. If we survive there is no reason why we should have a body any different in appearance from this, though it would be the ethereal in place of the corporeal body.

"The evidence is that it keeps the same appearance. In a seance with Mrs. Piper, as she was gradually coming out of trance I gave her a number of photographs of departed relatives, out of which she picked the picture of the one with whom she had been in communication. Though she never had seen this person in life she was able to recognize the picture.

"We have our ethereal or spiritual body all the time. St. Paul taught that we go on with our spiritual body. That is a reality; in science we call it the ethereal body. It is made up of ether; the material body is left behind at death.

Spirit and Soul Differ.

"We should distinguish between the soul and the spirit. The soul is the intermediary between spirit and matter. We are composed of three elements—the spirit, the soul, and the corporeal body. I should call the soul the ethereal body. That is what St. Paul called the spiritual body.

"All our evidence come from both the awful and the trivial. Lightning and the quivering frog's leg revealed the two types of electricity. Apparitions and ghosts help us to learn about disembodied spirits. Materialization spirit photography, table tipping, and raps help us in our study."

"What are the conditions on the other side?" was one of the questions Sir Oliver put forward.

"Our chief information is from newcomers," was his answer. "They seem to find things like they were on earth. It is like a yokel on his first visit to the city; he sees the things he is used to—horses, dogs and the like. So first messages from the departed is likely to be trivial."

"We Exist Before Birth."

Sir Oliver said he believed in a sense it was true the soul existed before birth.

"If we exist after death, why not before birth?" he asked, adding:

"We are an incarnate portion of our larger selves, which lie in the subliminal. Like the iceberg, we know only of that part which shows above the surface. Nine-tenths of it is below."

"What touch do the departed have with the earth?" Sir Oliver asked. "They look down on us as if they lived on a higher plane. But the struggle of evolution to higher things seems to be going on there as well as here.

"The struggle is shared even by the Deity, as shown by the Christian revelation—the call of service and sacrifice for earthly beings is so high it is the divine attribute. We all are progressing, in our own way and of our own free will, to be fit to be companions with the divine."

CITY OFFICIALS OPPOSE PLAN FOR NEW LOOP STREET

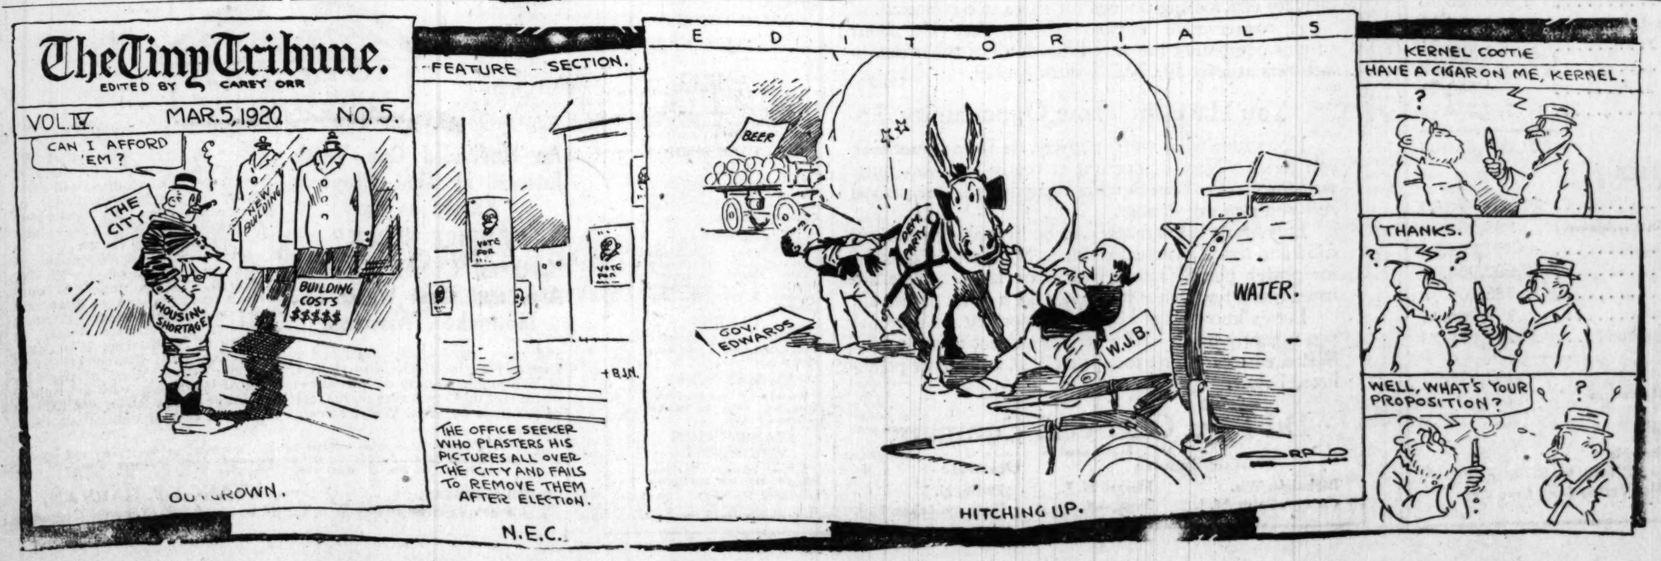
The plan advanced by Attorney Adolf Kraus and a committee of South Water street property owners for widening Haddock place into a new 'loop' thoroughfare met with decided opposition yesterday. Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements; Walter D. Moody of the Chicago Plan commission, and members of the city council all voiced the opinion that if this project is carried out, the millions already spent in furthering the Chicago plan will have been spent in vain.

Mr. Faherty declared the board of local improvements would not approve such a plan, and that if property owners attempt to widen the alley running from Franklin to State street between Lake and South Water streets, they will receive no assistance, moral or financial, from the city.

"Property owners who favor this plan are standing in their own light," Mr. Moody said. "The commission will fight its adoption."

Ald. Oscar Olsen said that congestion in the loop would be increased rather than diminished by such a step.

Ald. A. J. Cermak, Joseph Kostner, Matt Franz, George Pretzel, and James McNichols all declared that the "eyesores" and "firetraps" of South Water street must go, and that the produce market must eventually be removed from the loop



QUICK, WATSON, HERE'S A REAL ESTATE MYSTERY

BY AL CHASE.

Considerable mystery surrounds the purchase of two parcels of property on the west side of Canal street, between Harrison and Polk streets, by James H. Harper, registrar of Rush Medical college, at an aggregate purchase price of $307,000. Mr. Harper intimated that the property was vacant and improvements, although contemplated eventually, were too vague to be discussed.

One of the sellers, John F. Gubbins, said one piece was improved with a five story building and the other with a three story building. He also declared Mr. Harper had purchased considerable property in this section and that the entire block bounded by Harrison, Clinton, Mather, and Polk had been secured by certain interests which are planning some big improvements. Mr. Harper declares he has never purchased any property in this neighborhood before.

Anyway, Mr. Harper, according to the county records, paid $225,000 to Mr. Gubbins for the 55x165 square feet at the northwest corner of Canal and Mather streets and $82,000, subject to a $15,000 incumbrance, to Robert Redfield for the 81x100 square feet, 27 feet south of Mather street. Mr. Harper insists the purchases were made for his personal investment and that the Pennsylvania and Burlington railroads have nothing to do with them.

DU PONT

WAR SURPLUS EQUIPMENT

Saved 9 million dollars during 1919

American manufacturers buy Du Pont surplus equipment at low prices and get prompt delivery

One manufacturer came to us from San Francisco for equipment he could find nowhere else at any price. We had what he wanted and within several weeks a $1,000,000 unit was in his Pacific coast plant at a cost of $154,000.

A Detroit manufacturer urgently needing certain machinery heard about our sale of surplus equipment. He had expected to pay $60,000 to $70,000 and wait ninety days for delivery. He got from us just what he needed for $30,000 and within two weeks the equipment was in his Detroit plant.

Not only the price, but prompt shipment and delivery effected big savings for these two concerns.

A conservative estimate shows that Du Pont surplus equipment has saved hundreds of other manufacturers at least $9,000,000 during 1919.

You Have the Same Opportunity

No matter what your industry, we have something you need. New equipment is costly and you must wait for it. Du Pont Surplus Equipment is low priced and you can get it now.

Peru

American interests in Peru are served by our affiliate, the Banco Mercantil Americano del Peru

The selection of a bank to act in foreign countries deserves the most careful consideration of the American merchant, manufacturer and banker. Such a bank must employ uniform fairness to both American and foreign clients and to effect this it is necessary to be conversant with the customs, characteristics and mode of doing business of the people of the countries in which it operates.

It is easy enough for an American bank to be fair to Americans, because it knows and understands them, but it cannot be equally fair to foreign customers unless it also knows and understands them.

The Mercantile Bank of the Americas assures this in Peru because its affiliated bank with branches in Lima, Arequipa, Chiclayo, Callao and Trujillo has both American and Peruvian executives. The latter, knowing and thoroughly understanding the Peruvians, assist us greatly in giving better service.

Thus our affiliates in all countries are more than representative. They know Latin America as we know the United States. Our combined knowledge is the basis for our service.

BANK RATES ON TRADE PAPER TO STAY FIRM

Neither the banks nor note brokers are encouraging commercial borrowing at this time, and in consequence rates for commercial paper are better than firm. They range from 6½ for the best names to 7 per cent for the least desirable.

It has become a rather acute operating factor with the banks to follow the wishes of the Federal Reserve board in its campaign of deflation, started last year. Present high commercial rates have resulted.

The board began with the stock market, on which rather severe punishment has been inflicted. It is now recognized that speculators in produce must be driven from their position. From the east, where most correction was needed, word comes authoritatively, that the high prices for commercial paper are not due so much to scarcity of money as to the desire to cause the unloading of goods held for higher prices.

Profit in Duty.

Following this suggestion has made it easy for the banks to pursue a line of duty that is profitable.

Country institutions are not able to buy much commercial paper at this time because of the established custom of country borrowers making contracts payable on March 1. The country banks do not, therefore, report a condition that suggests other than normal reasons for the closeness of money with them. By the middle of March they expect to be free of the working of the custom which now ties up their funds.

Chicago banks are buying no commercial paper, and they have also restricted their loans to any source. Without unfavorable underlying causes, however, such as lack of confidence, the money situation may be considered very close.

Meanwhile the treasury department has gradually called nearly the whole of a total of $1,563,645,000, the funds that were in special depositories in 1918. The retirement of that credit was gradual, but as late as Sept. 4, 1919, these special deposits amounted to $1,800,535,000.

Starts Deflation Policy.

It was at about this time that the Federal Reserve board began its "deflation" policy. The last report covering this matter showed but $74,803,000 of such special deposits.

Apart from the condition brought about by the fall in the price of European exchange, it can be seen that the government operating through the Federal Reserve board, is responsible for a good part of the pessimism which has ruled in the securities market. Few, except those who have lost in speculative commitments, are finding much fault with the motives of the board. But a depreciation in the value of investments, when considered in relation to the general volume of credit of the country, warrants two opinions of the character of the good that has been accomplished.

The New York Times.

New York, March 4.—[Special.]—Without showing preliminary indications, the foreign exchange and cotton markets suddenly advanced this afternoon and maintained their strength to the close of business.

The pivot of the swing forward was sterling exchange, which at the maximum quotation recorded a rise of 14c to the pound, as compared with the final quotation the day before.

Bankers in position to know intimately the financial views of British and French leaders were noncommittal in discussing the underlying factors at work in the exchanges, but the street was convinced that a movement of gold from Europe to the United States was at least under contemplation.

Purchases for Profits.

It was likely that speculators in exchange sensed the drift of quotations soon after they began to move upward and purchases for the sake of a profit had a part in afternoon dealings. Offerings of bills were light, as they had been for a week previously, and this tended to impart a volatile quality to the market. Franc rates climbed and other exchanges reflected in positive fashion the unusual movement of London prices.

Industrial stocks of the groups which appeal particularly to traders scored net gains amounting to 2 and in some instances to 3 and 4 points. While these were advancing, however, the rails disclosed a decided lack of interest, and the comment of brokerage offices emphasized the uncertain situation of sentiment in respect to them.

Demand Loans Easier.

Standing demand loans were renewed at 9 per cent instead of the 10 per cent quotation of other days of the week, and subsequently funds were in supply sufficient to maintain the renewal rate all the way along.

Time money rates stood stiffly at 8 and 9 per cent.

Sterling sight drafts closed at 3.55¼, compared with a maximum quotation of 3.60. Francs were 39 points higher when business ended than the day before, after showing a greater gain earlier in the afternoon. A reaction was not surprising after so violent a rise.

STANDARD OIL OF INDIANA SHOWS LOSS IN EARNINGS

The annual report of the Standard Oil company of Indiana for the year ended Dec. 31, 1919, shows a considerable decrease in net earnings, but an increase in net profits due to a smaller amount reserved for federal taxes. International Money Machine.

J. D., Cedar Rapids, Ia.—The International Money Machine company needs more capital and is offering 62,724 shares of 8 per cent preferred stock to holders of its 187,719 shares of common. The balance sheet of Dec. 31 last shows about $4 of net tangible assets to each outstanding share of $10 par. There is a purchase money mortgage of $85,000, maturing next year, also a floating debt of $40,500. Current assets are principally materials and finished machines not sold. No income account is shown. A comparison of the balance sheet with that of June 30, 1917, shows some improvement in tangible assets per share. Since June 30, 1917, more than 40,000 shares of stock have been sold. If this brought $10 a share into the treasury it would more than account for the improvement, thus indicating an operating loss. An independent audit and income account would show just where the company stands.

Brief Answers.

F. D., Blue Earth, Minn.—The Western Electric company is controlled by the American Telephone and Telegraph company, which owns nearly all the stock. There is $30,000,000 of 6 per cent cumulative preferred, also 150,000 no par shares of common. Dividends on common stock are paid at the rate of $10 a year.

S. M.—There is no market for Lackawanna Coal and Lumber stock and bonds. International Educational Publishing company stock can be sold at a few cents a share.

F. E. S., Shannon, Ill.—The Kansas and Gulf Producing and Refining company has been reviewed. Send stamped envelope for clipping if you wish it.

BUSINESS

The United Iron Works, Inc., is the successor to the United Iron Works Company, whose headquarters are located at Kansas City, Mo. The latter company has been in successful operation since 1903, when it started with a comparatively small capital. From this point it has grown until it now has seven plants doing a gross annual business of approximately $4,000,000 and located as follows: Aurora, Joplin and Springfield, Mo.; Independence, Iola and Pittsburg, Kansas, and Okmulgee, Okla. These plants, among many other articles, manufacture castings of all kinds, engines, steel buildings (structural steel), coal mine equipment, boilers, pumps, ditching machinery, oil refineries (complete or in units).

The plant at Okmulgee, Okla., has entered extensively into the manufacture of supplies for oil wells and oil refineries, and recent activity in this industry assures capacity business for some time. However, the company's products are so diversified as to assure good business even in periods of depression.

We're Doing It!

We predicted on March 2nd we'd DOUBLE our business in March. We have more than our quota for the first week.

The seller is dictating today, but when prices decline the buyer is going to control business. Are you prepared for that time with Credit Insurance ono your accounts?

Why, do you suppose, have so many of our Bondholders in the past month ASKED US to double their insurance? There's a reason for it, and we suggest that you let us tell you what it is.

Why are we receiving large premiums for our protection every day from firms who in the past have lost practically nothing on their credit accounts. There's a reason for it—do you know what it is? We can tell you, and so can they.

Its' the wise merchant who looks ahead and prepares for what might happen in the future, and the unwise one who neglects to make provision for the future.

By carrying our UNLIMITED and liberal policy of Credit Insurance you take the gamble out of your business.

BLIZZARD SENDS UP CORN PRICES TO NEW RECORD

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

A blizzard over the greater part of the country was the bullish factor in the grains, creating nervousness among shorts and confidence on the part of holders. Prices were again advanced, and, while not holding the extreme gains, were 2⅜@3¼c up on corn, ⅞c on oats, 3¼@4¼c on rye and 2½c on barley futures.

Heavy Trade in Corn.

Corn values continue upward with nothing to check the bulge to any extent during the day. All futures with the exception of May advanced to new high figures for the season, March selling at $1.50, while May was $1.43⅝, or 1⅜c above the inside figure of last week. At the finish prices were ¼@⅝c under the top.

A heavier trade was on with more outside buying, and the leading seller of the previous day was active on the buying side. This bad weather over the corn belt states combined with reports of an international loan in prospect, and strength in sterling exchange were the bullish influences. The storm will check deliveries from farms and the movement of trains. Selling against daily and weekly offers checked the upturn.

Free Selling of Oats.

Long oats came out freely through commission houses on all hard spots, and the market made a poor response to the strength in corn, although closing at the high point. The advance in cash oats to 92½c, a new high for the season, was without effect.

Exporters advanced their bids on rye ½c to 14c over May, track Baltimore, a new high on the crop, and secured 100,000 bu at Minneapolis, in addition to 25,000 bu here late Wednesday at 13½c over. At Duluth 4½c over May was bid c. i. f. Buffalo for shipment at opening of navigation with 5c over asked. Of the 6,500,000 bu held there about 3,000,000 bu have been sold. It was not easy to buy futures, and May advanced 4⅛c, realizing sales making a reaction at the last. No. 2 on track sold at May price.

Barley firm with a good demand for malting grades. Sales were at $1.42@1.54. Receipts, 10 cars.

Lard Trade Active.

Lard received the bulk of attention of provision traders and advanced 42½c with the close at the top, gaining 32½c. Shorts and commission houses were the buyers and Armour the best seller. Cash sales were at 80c under May. The advances in corn and hogs were the stimulating factors. Cash trade in meats was slow. Ribs and pork were neglected. Prices follow:

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

As corn prices advance the market appears to broaden and there is a large professional trade with more outside business. Large operators take profits from day to day and some reinstate their lines at higher levels. March corn at $1.50 yesterday was 4c under the No. 3 mixed, which is the lowest grade now deliverable and is penalized 2½c. This would make it relatively 6½c over March. May closed at 10⅝c under the No. 3 mixed, which is too low compared with the cash. The short interest has been larger than counted on and at times it has been largely one short buying from another.

Traders who have been long May and short July corn and short corn and long oats were active in closing their spreads. There was a good profit in the corn and a loss in the corn and oats spread. Buying of corn against sales of oats was on an also large scale. It was one of the features of the day's trading. While one large local operator reinstated his line of corn yesterday, another took profits on both corn and oats, especially the latter. He said the cash situation was the basis for the advance and it might go further, but he was willing to get out.

Sentiment last night favored higher prices for all grains, but caution in buying and profit taking on bulges was advised by conservative operators.

Based on the recent estimate that Austria had made arrangements to secure around 3,500,000 bu wheat or rye through Rotterdam, it is estimated that close to 2,000,000 bu of both grains remain to be bought in this country. Austria is regarded as having been the destination of the 500,000 bu of durum wheat and the 1,000,000 bu rye bought by the seaboard the last few days.

The Grain corporation bought 340,000 brls flour on its requests for offers this week, paying $10.62, jute, track Baltimore, and $10.00 per brl at Pacific coast points.

Board of Trade memberships sold at $10,000 net to the buyer.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS.

The Gold Standard of Mattress Value.
Every one who knows anything about mattresses knows that a mattress made of curled hair is the acme of comfort. But many homes have gone without this luxurious comfort because of the cost.
This company, formerly the bedding dept. of Wilson & Co., makes only the finest grade sterilized curled hair mattresses and box springs. This line is known as the "Restgood."
We have determined to sell these mattresses and springs at the factory to any one living inside the city limits of Chicago at wholesale prices.
We use only the choicest sterilized curled hair and the best ticking; our workmen are the most expert in the trade. The high quality of mattresses we make are not found regularly except in the highest priced stores.
The same grade, bought anywhere else, where you pay the retail price, will cost you almost 100% more than we ask. Come to the factory, inspect our materials, learn the truth about hair mattresses, see the "Restgood" made.
Our wholesale prices make the "Restgood" the most economical as well as the best mattress to buy in Chicago.
Take any Archer-av. car or 35th-st. car or drive to 35th and Archer.

Karo

Don't worry about the high price of jams, jellies and preserves. Serve Karo, the Great American Sweet. Buy it by the dozen cans. An important message. Read it!

AMONG the twenty odd million American Homes there is probably not a single one where Karo is not served in some manner—for breakfast, for dinner or for supper.

During these days of high prices, Karo has become another word for economy. Thousands of thoughtful housewives have learned that Blue Label Karo is not only a delicious spread for pancakes, but answers every purpose where a sweet is needed.

Instead of paying the present high prices for jams, jellies and preserves—serve Blue Label Karo on sliced bread, toast, pancakes or waffles.

Do as the wise cooks are now doing: Use Karo to stew dried fruit, prunes; use it for candied sweet potatoes, brown bread, muffins, coffee cake and puddings.

Karo Home-made Candy is the best for children. It is wholesome, easy to make, costs much less than store candy.

IMPORTANT

There never was such a demand for Blue Label Karo as today. Housewives everywhere are buying it by the dozen cans. Ask your grocer the price per dozen. For economy's sake buy it this way.
